

The Blue I Ching

Specializations - Potentials - Shadows - Streams - Crosses

FOREWORD BY THE AUTHORS

Our thanks go to Ra Uru Hu, our great teacher, who introduced us to the knowledge of HumanDesign. In two decades of work, he has laid the foundation for this fascinating matrix to experience a broad and worldwide application.

After years of working with the HumanDesign Matrix in coaching and management consulting, and in the training of many coaches and consultants, in 2011 we decided to create this 64keys version of the "Rave I Ching" as written by Ra Uru Hu in 1994.

The Blue I Ching is intended to present the qualities of the 64 potentials, the 36 specializations and the 192 crosses in a clear and concise form and in clear language. It is a central learning aid for the 64keys training. These texts can also be found in the 64keys software on 64keys.com.

We would like to thank Erik Memmert, Jürgen Saupe, Richard Rudd and Werner Pitzal for the inspiration they have contributed to this project through their work.

Furthermore, we would also like to pay tribute to the authors of the millennia-old Chinese I Ching and thank all those who have contributed to its dissemination and translation. Only slowly is it becoming clear to the Western world what a treasure the "Book of Changes" represents and how valid the processes and aspects of life, especially in this synthesis, are still today.

For the use of the Blue I Ching

On the following pages the potentials of the force field are explained and shown in their numerical order.

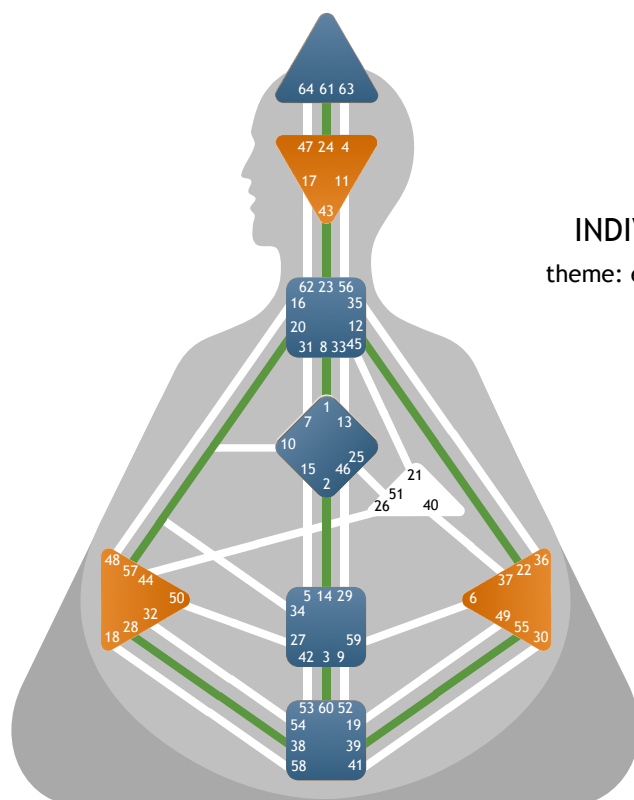

On the left page you will find the general information about the gate, the harmonic gate in the respective channel, the description of the specialization/channel* in which the gate is located, the opposition gates in the wheel as well as the crosses with their names and the four associated gates. Furthermore, the position of the gates in the force field as well as in the hexagram wheel is shown graphically.

On the right page the qualities of the hexagrams as well as the line qualities are described in their meanings, in the potential and in the shadow mode.

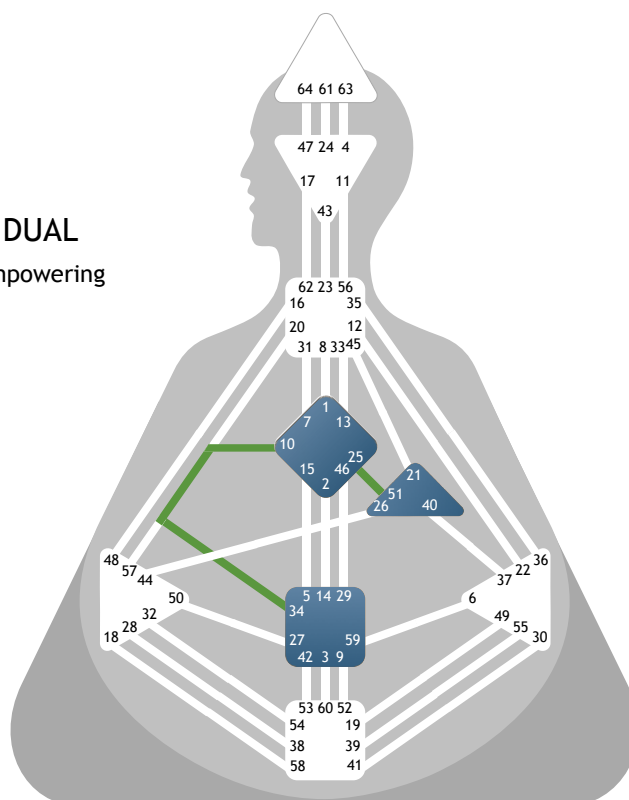

*) The descriptions of the specializations correspond to the texts in the 64keys force field analyses and are therefore partly formulated in the first person.

PRESENTATION - The expression and encouragement of creative freshness and originality.

This specialization enables me to express my creative abilities in a very unique way that will inspire others as well. My unusual creative talents make me an example to other people. I know how to lead people by being a role model, going my own individual way. Whether or not people follow that way, is of minor interest to me. In public I am able to set an important example, as my individual sense of creative presence helps me influence others. Nothing is worse for me than being compared with others or being told: "You are just like him/her...". I want to be recognized for my uniqueness and, as such, receive the respect and appreciation I deserve.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 2 Receptiveness that is the root of manifestation.

Originality

1

The power to express individual, creative inspiration.

Gate 1 represents the potential for originality and creation out of one's individual self. It is the potential for creativity and strongest in Yang (six lines Yang). Creativity attracts other people. Gate 1 wants to express itself and get attention, but its creativity only occurs in moments of solitude, suddenly and unpredictably. Creativity wants to unfold for its own sake, not for money or recognition. Gate 1 embodies the regulating male energy of Yang, which represents a creative power that cannot be forced deliberately. The gate's potential is Originality. In the Penta Force Field it refers to the aspect of Implementation.

⊕ ▲ The objective clarity of creative expression is untouchable.

6 Objectivity

The objective assessment of creative value.

ω ▽ The risk that subjective appraisal of creativity will result in blocking creativity.

♂ ▲ Attraction that results from the power of the Ego to stay with and endure the creative process.

5 The power of attraction

The power to stay with the creative process.

♂ ▽ Eccentric behaviour which, though attractive, will limit the drive.

⊕ ▲ Creativity that must develop alone and outside of all influences.

4 Solitude

Solitude as the medium of creativity.

⊕ ▽ The need for influence abandons aloneness and therefore disrupts the natural flow of creativity.

♂ ▲ The deep need to express one's own personality and to keep the energy, the creative process going.

3 To keep things going

The need for expression independent of success.

⊕ ▽ Material interests stall the flow of creativity.

♀ ▲ The creative expression of the Self is formed by ideals and values, which favours the expression of beauty.

2 Ideals

Expression conditioned by beauty and ideals.

♂ ▽ The expression of the Self is shaped by desire and passion, which limits the creative potential.

⌚ ▲ The creative expression of the Self, which unfolds in the right moment and has the patience to follow the right timing.

1 Manifestation

Creation with unforeseeable timing.

♂ ▽ Creative instability due to a lack of patience and the Ego that wants to force creativity.

Bridging Gate Theme knowing about one's direction in life

Genetic Codon Group Phenylalanine (2, 8)

Harmonic Gate 14 Gathering and mangaging resources as well as the clever use of capacities in interactions.

Channel/Specialization 14/2
ATTITUDE - The predominant allocation of one's own resources for the benefit of an inherent mission.

This specialization enables me to devote my energy to creative work and, at the same time, provide direction to others. My mission in life is a very individual one. I am capable of encouraging others to recognize and follow my attitude. I have tremendous charisma that can strongly influence the direction other people will take. At the same time, I will hardly ever be dissuaded from following my path and my inner attitude. It is a gift that many people who are in the center of public attention possess. Almost every anchorman and anchorwoman has that specialization. It is the clearly visible expression of stance and "backbone". It is the "anchor" that can provide orientation to others. This specialization is the central aspect of transpersonal force fields. When I work in a team, I will always exert a strong and trend-setting influence.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 1 The power to express individual, creative inspiration.

Receptiveness that is the root of manifestation.

Gate 2 carries the potential for receiving and giving direction. It is the direction of the higher self and strongest in Yin (six lines Yin). Gate 2 is also the seat of the magnetic monopole, which only attracts and never repels. Like a seed, which knows that with the help of sunlight and water it will one day become an oak, Gate 2 knows about the direction into which the resources of Gate 14 want to be steered. It is the female, guiding power that stems from the deep receptiveness for higher knowledge. The direction becomes manifest in the three other Sphinx Gates (7, 1 and 13). The gate's potential is to find or provide Orientation. In the Penta Force Field it is the aspect of Focus.

6 Fixation	♀ ▲ A narrow receptivity for higher knowledge, which only sees selected aspects and never the whole picture. Unable to see the whole picture. ☿ ▼ The Higher Self is absorbed with the mundane need for individual security.

Genetic Codon Group Leucine (3, 20, 23, 24, 27, 42)

Harmonic Gate 60 The realism that accepts limitations as a basis to overcome them.

Channel/Specialization 60/3
INNOVATION - Innovation based on the successful synthesis of established concepts and new impulses (mutation).

This specialization makes me a very impulsive person. I can feel the drive to start or change direction very suddenly and unexpectedly. In doing so, I can bring change and innovation into the world. This may either have a destabilizing effect on others, or encourage them to try something new. I am capable of triggering chaos as well as order in my environment. This impulsive way of using my energy leaves its mark on everything I do. As there is no telling when such a boost of energy will occur, I, too, never know when "it" will happen. Every now and then this can induce a state of melancholy, when things stall and there is no energy at my disposal. This sort of melancholy can be a source of tremendous creativity.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 50 The awareness of rules and values that can be useful and enriching today and in future.

Mutation

3

Altering the order and mastering the chaos that arises when syntheses are created.

Gate 3 is the vital force of change and mutation, always ready to start something new, to develop syntheses and overcome the initial confusion of this process with a view to creating new forms. Mutation happens through reproduction or cultural mutation. Gate 3 is deeply aware of fertility. It determines which genetic material from the parent's genetic pool will be passed on to the child, and thus facilitates biological mutation from one generation to the next. Cultural evolution arises out of individual expression that has the power to change others by setting an example. Here, development is based on the integration of new concepts. And whenever new syntheses are created, there may be a time of temporary chaos that needs to be put in order. The gate's potential is Change.

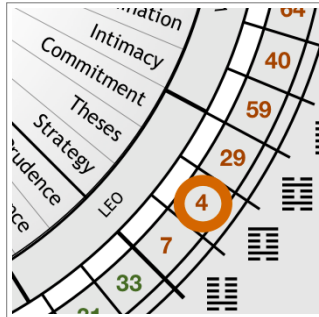

6	Equanimity	☉ ▲	The innate knowledge that ordering is a natural process, not a problem that could be solved by struggle.
		☯ ▼	Accepting that ordering is a process.
5	Courage	☯ ▼	The depression and hopelessness when the confused power overwhelms and fighting becomes futile.
		♂ ▲	The unique energy of individuality that withstands confusion and stands by its convictions.
4	Charisma	⊕ ▼	The courage to stand by one's convictions, even if unclear.
		⊕ ▼	The confused energy that is dominated by the ordering powers of others.
3	Survival	Ψ ▲	The regulative and attuned energy that attracts nourishment and facilitates innovation.
		♂ ▼	Charisma that attracts nourishing energy.
2	Subordination	♂ ▼	The confused energy that is rejected in its search for nourishment.
		♀ ▲	The ability to distinguish between fertile and sterile and to choose the right partner for mutation.
1	Synthesis	☯ ▼	Survival through recognizing fertility.
		☯ ▼	The stubborn denial of mutation and innovation, as there is naturally always a lack of experience for mutation.
		♂ ▲	The energy and potential to support individual mutation and innovation.
		♂ ▼	The acceptance of guidance for individual mutation.
		☯ ▼	The inner instability that does not trust one's own innovative potential and therefore loses its independence.
		⊕ ▲	The innate understanding that confusion is normal and will always exist before clarity can be achieved and a new order will emerge through synthesis.
		⊕ ▲	Synthesis to create order out of chaos.
		♀ ▼	The inability to know that order will emerge and the temptation after setbacks to seek knowledge elsewhere.

Genetic Codon Group Valine (4,7,29,59)

Harmonic Gate 63 The pressuring doubt that asks for renewed verification in order to reach understanding.

Channel/Specialization 63/4
UNDERSTANDING - Verifying established hypotheses in order to get closer to the truth.

This specialization provides me with a scientific-sceptical mind and enables me to bring everything into question and check things for their validity. I frequently feel a mental pressure to find answers to my doubts, which can also make me inspire others to question wrong assessments of what can lead us securely into the future. The answers and hypotheses I find do not necessarily have to be correct. First, it needs to be verified whether or not they are useful and valid. My mind is always focused on the future, which can cause me to have doubts and worries about my own future. It will ease my concerns if I use my mind for exploring more general topics instead of personal ones. If I utter my hypotheses out of turn, I can put considerable mental pressure on others and cause them to get a worried "headache". As far as I am concerned, the worry lines on my forehead can also deepen over the years.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 49 The revolution based on the highest principles and not only started for the sake of power.

Theses

4

Considering self-made theses and concepts to be valid despite the doubts that come with ignorance.

Gate 4 is about mentally processing theses that are to secure our future. It is the ability to answer questions with logical theses. It is also the imaginative power that strives to anticipate the future. Such ideas and theses must first be tested and verified. Sometimes those theses are sheer foolishness, but as long as they haven't been falsified, they will be considered valid. If Gate 4 cannot grasp something, it will reject it on the basis of logical reasons. When all aspects of a mental concept have been appraised objectively, true understanding can evolve. The answers of Gate 4 can then lead to revolutionary changes in the world. The gate's potential is the Formation of Theses.

6 Patience

♀ ▲ The potential to recognize when logical understanding is not yet complete and have the patience to wait out the process.

Recognizing that understanding is not yet complete.

♂ ▼ The excessive expression of half-truths as one cannot wait, and the gall to accept punishment as a price.

5 Seduction

♀ ▲ The tempting potential to succeed through the understanding of others and pocket the reward.

To harness formulas through seduction.

♂ ▼ Destructive cynicism that comes with having to acknowledge that others have better understanding than oneself.

4 Role playing

☉ ▲ The potential to create imaginative ideas and credibly present them through appropriate behaviour.

Imaginative role play - elevated to an art form.

☿ ▼ Fantasies are presented as facts, which will inevitably lead to humiliation when they are exposed as lies.

3 Irresponsibility

♀ ▲ The potential to enjoy formulas with no regard to their practical application.

To content oneself with superficial formulas.

♂ ▼ The irresponsibility to value formulas more than the benefit they can bring.

2 Forgiveness

☉ ▲ The tolerance to forgive follies as one is aware that there cannot always be awareness.

Tolerance through recognizing that not everyone can understand.

♂ ▼ The assertion of the Ego that takes advantage of the failures and the lack of awareness (foolishness) in others.

1 Folly

☉ ▲ The pleasure in folly, which can be enjoyable because of the right timing and which will not be punished either.

Understanding depends on the perfect timing.

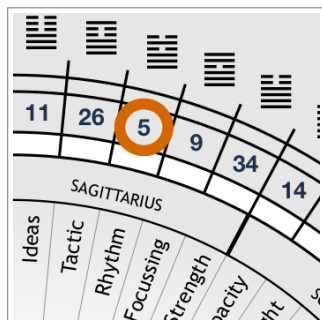

⊕ ▼ The finding of answers and the formation of theses, which are exposed as follies because of their randomness and the wrong timing.

Channel/Specialization 5/15
ASSIMILIATION - One's own patterns and rhythms merging with those of one's environment. Living life in the flow.

Due to this specialization others may feel "magnetically" drawn to me. I can put other people in a state of harmony that represents the harmony of life. When I am in tune with "the flow" of my life force, I will have a very positive influence on others. When I am not, the effect on people around me will be rather adverse and disharmonious. At any rate, the way I feel will always have a substantial effect. This specialization is of immense importance for any kind of team process, as it provides the power to merge the individual force fields of people into one transpersonal force field. As long as I remain true to my integrity and feel comfortable with it, I am capable of bringing other people into the wonderful flow of life - without any further effort.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 35 Progress that develops through emotional experiences with other people.

Waiting in alignment with natural rhythms as an active state of awareness.

Gate 5 is the vital force that puts things in order and creates patterns or rhythms. It is about the power to wait in order to integrate a pattern. It is the gate of habits, daily routines and pace. The pulse of life, which is closely linked to time, originates in this gate. From the patterns of the human digestive system or one's breathing frequency to the flow of the seasons. Gate 5 implies the ability to wait for the right moment so as to keep the rhythms and bring them in line with nature. The gate's potential is Rhythm. In the Penta Force Field it represents the aspect of Regulative Culture.

6 Yielding	♂ ▲ The ability to recognize the value of unexpected developments and to bend to the flow of things by accepting and using the unavoidable. To submit to the inevitable. ▽ Mistrust that stubbornly rejects unexpected developments and cannot see their value.

FERTILITY - Connecting and selectively opening to the potential for fruitful processes.

This specialization can be best described as "aura opener". Owing to my life force and charisma, I find it easy to form intimate bonds with other people. What is normal to me can probably be too suffocating for others or maybe lead to misunderstandings. This "fertility" is not only related to the intimacy between people. It is a quality that results in fruitful cooperation and sets off creative processes. This specialization is closely connected to emotions. These emotions can be very unremarkable, maybe even hidden, and only reveal themselves occasionally, depending on the context of a relationship. This specialization becomes quite important in larger structures, as it helps develop and maintain human interaction.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 36 The willingness to be affected by crises as they are perceived as an opportunity for development.

Considerate discussion that serves as a pre-requisite to fruitful development and growth.

Gate 6 embodies the emotional intelligence for acceptance or rejection. It steers the flow of emotions through the Emotion Center like a water lock that controls whether or not we are open to intimacy. Gate 6 is the genetically determined protective reflex that regulates with whom we become intimate. It encompasses all potential flows of awareness and the emotional waves of the Emotion Center. It determines emotional balance and human interaction - from peace to war. On a physical level it is associated with our pH-balance. The gate's potential is Considerateness.

6 To bring about peace To end conflict with sensitivity and reason.

♀ ▲ The highest form of reason which realizes that life is sacred, combined with the emotional power to end a conflict by bringing about rightful peace.

♀ ▼ When bringing about peace, the urge to dictate unacceptable conditions due to a lack of emotional clarity.

5 Mediation Restraint in order to avoid conflict.

♀ ▲ The ability to acknowledge different points of view, which furthers harmony, as open conflict is avoided.

☯ ▼ In conflict, the insensitivity to the motives and standpoints of others will only accept one's own victory as just.

4 Triumph To amicably unfold natural and dominant power.

☯ ▲ The natural emotional power to dominated relationships, as kindness and wisdom result from emotional clarity.

☯ ▼ The lack of emotional control, which has a destructive effect in a relationship and ends in a Pyrrhic victory, as it destroys the relationship.

3 Loyalty Secure support out of a weak position.

♂ ▲ The ability to secure support in a conflict out of a weak position, as a depth of feelings and loyalty are displayed.

☯ ▼ In a conflict loyalty is considered a submission to the established order, which leads to the rejection of intimacy and connection.

2 Guerilla To find the weakest point.

♀ ▲ The sensitivity to find the weakest point in order to launch a targeted emotional attack, followed by retreat.

♂ ▼ A lack of sensitivity blunders into conflict which are then dominated by blind rage, as there is no way of retreat.

1 Retreat Retreat from conflict, if courage were foolhardy.

☯ ▲ The emotional stability to accept that conflicts are always possible and embrace retreat as an opportunity for renewal, not a failure.

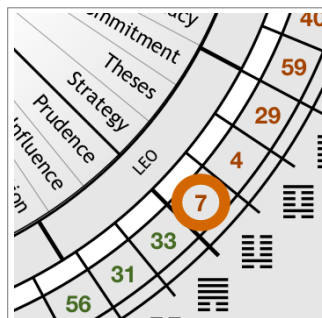

♀ ▼ Retreat is considered a personal failure, which leads to open conflict and, consequently, emotional instability.

LEADING - Leadership as a means of effectively expressing a strategic direction and role.

This specialization enables me to develop genuine leadership qualities. I know how to discern patterns and trends, how to use them to develop strategies and present them in a way that will put me in a position to influence the collective and lead them into the future. Here it is important to be nominated and authorized by the community to do so. This can happen in the form of a distinct mandate or by way of democratic elections. So it is not about developing an autocratic leadership style, but about putting the needs of the collective into the focus of attention. I may not always be the formal leader, but once I have mastered a subject, I will always be able to exert influence based on that. This can, for instance, also be the case should I be an artist. Basically, this is about my natural gift to lead the collective toward an assured future. It is not a matter of satisfying one's individual claim to power, but of putting this gift at the disposal of the collective in a serving way.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 13 Attentive listening that helps grasp the teachings and experiences of the past.

Strategy

7

Strategically arranging the roles within society in order to cope with the future.

Gate 7 is the direction of the future. It represents a role of leadership, either through establishing new orders or destroying old ones. It is about knowing which direction to take in order to reach one's goal, and also about the authority to accomplish it. From the empathic guide to the authoritarian dictator: To be authorized by the collective is always mandatory for leadership and for putting the strategies of Gate 7 into practice. The gate's potential is to develop Strategies. In the Penta Force Field it is the aspect of Planning.

	♀ ▲	The ability to share power adequately and transfer responsibilities to others for the greater good.
6 Administration		Administration through the responsible apportioning of power.
	♂ ▼	The bureaucrat whose lust for power hardens hierarchical structures, destabilizes the system or turns it rigid.
	♀ ▲	In difficult situations, the gift to lead others with confidence based on their loyalty.
5 The general		Sanctioned to lead absolutistically.
	♂ ▼	The commander who ignores the purpose of their mission, oversteps their competences and thus loses the loyalty of others.
	☉ ▲	The decency and wisdom to step down for the benefit of the whole and accept the judgement of others and the rule of law.
4 Abdication		The wisdom to step down for the benefit of the whole.
	♂ ▼	Those in power who refuse to relinquish leadership and authority and to accept the judgement of others.
	☾ ▲	The potential to bring into question and reject old orders, so as to initiate changes and try out new structures.
3 Anarchistic		The rejection of any institutionalized order.
	♀ ▼	The pessimist who challenges everything and, out of rejection, wants to destroy any kind of institutionalized order regardless of the consequences.
	♂ ▲	By accepting universally approved methods, have a widespread influence on society.
2 Democratic		The capacity to lead when democratically authorized.
	♀ ▼	Overstepping one's leadership authority and the inability to let go, as the power basis has been ignored.
	♀ ▲	The ability of conveying elementary rules and values to others and to lead based on this security.
1 Authoritarian		The capacity to guide with authority.
	♀ ▼	The belief that only one's own way is the right way, and the conviction that this way must be enforced with authority.

This specialization enables me to express my creative abilities in a very unique way that will inspire others as well. My unusual creative talents make me an example to other people. I know how to lead people by being a role model, going my own individual way. Whether or not people follow that way, is of minor interest to me. In public I am able to set an important example, as my individual sense of creative presence helps me influence others. Nothing is worse for me than being compared with others or being told: "You are just like him/her...". Focussing

9

The energy to focus and consider all aspects in detail.

Gate 9 is home to the vital force of focussing on the details, i.e. the determination to keep concentrating on details, which is essential for the entire logical cycle of experimenting, reviewing, repeating, practising, and perfecting. “Even a journey of thousand miles begins with a single step”. It is where you put your focus and which tiny details you pay attention to that greatly influences the journey’s path. Gate 9 is either overwhelmed or distracted by the details, or it makes use of its focus on the details to reach the bigger goal. Since the Logical Circuit has little energetic supply, it is important to focus so as not to waste energy. The gate’s potential is Focussing.

6 Gratitude

☯ ▲ The gratitude that is satisfied with small rewards for the small, but essential steps to success.

Gratitude even for small rewards and victories.

☯ ▼ The energy that seeks expression and acknowledgement and will not be satisfied with small successes and rewards.

5 Faith

☯ ▲ The trust that focus on the details will lead to fulfilment. Loyalty to the letter of the law.

The faith that adherence to the details will help reach the goal.

⊕ ▼ The doubt that is created when there is a lack of power to concentrate and the details cannot be seen.

4 Dedication

☯ ▲ The ability to focus that keeps track of things even in stressful situations and sees the details that are essential for success.

The dedication to pay disciplined attention to details.

♂ ▼ The urge to act is so strong that essential steps are skipped and details are ignored.

3 Details

⊕ ▲ The experience to consider all details of a process in order to avoid failure because of missed details.

Avoid failure through focusing on details.

☯ ▼ The failure to focus leads to missed details and believes that problems can be solved through the use of sheer force.

2 Division of work

☯ ▲ The energy and the ability not to lose focus in the collaboration with others and the gift to solve problems in a goal-oriented way.

To collaborate with others in focusing.

☯ ▼ Losing one's focus due to the urge for collaboration. The drive to expand will lead to missed opportunities and frustration.

1 Sensibility

☯ ▲ The sensitivity to act responsibly when creating new forms and use a focused approach to problem-solving.

Authenticity

Authentic behaviour as the basis for successful interaction in every situation in life.

Gate 10 holds the potential of showing one's Self in an authentic way. It is one's personal appearance, the behavior of the Self. It has a powerful effect and a conditioning influence on others. The way to self-love is to surrender to life in full, to explore it in order to become aware of oneself and one's authentic uniqueness. Gate 10 is connected to three other centers: Through Gate 57 to the Intuition Center, through Gate 34 to the Life Force Center, and through Gate 20 to the Expression Center. Its purpose is not to adapt but to stay true to its nature. The gate's potential is Authenticity.

	☯ ▲ The authentic role model expresses itself through action rather than words.
6 Exemplarity	Authentic example through actions rather than words. ☹ ▼ Hypocrisy that uses many words but does not act upon them.
	⚡ ▲ The behaviour that is based on higher principles and directly challenges existing norms.
5 Heresy	The heretic protest against standards and traditions. ♂ ▼ Heresy that ends on the stake, as the rebellion against existing norms was pushed too far.
	⚙ ▲ Norms are being accepted until the right moment and the opportunity arise to carry out successful changes.
4 Opportunism	To recognize the right moment for transformation. ♀ ▼ The opportunistic adaptation of behaviour that turns into a game and cannot effect a transformation of norms.
	⊕ ▲ The martyr-like example who is idealized for their futile rejection of norms.
3 Martyrdom	The rejection of standards as a martyr or example. ☹ ▼ Seeking for victimhood out of a thirst for glory and the pursuit of recognition.
	♀ ▲ Voluntary isolation when the independence of one's authentic behaviour is in danger.
2 Hermitism	Voluntary isolation to maintain individuality. ♂ ▼ Enforced isolation, as one cannot live one's authentic behaviour due to external influences. The angry exile.
	☉ ▲ The ability to accept one's place and to know how to act despite circumstances.
1 Modesty	To modestly accept one's place. ☹ ▼ The displeasure of recognizing one's own place and struggling with external influences.

Harmonic Gate 56 The flexibility to follow one's curiosity and seek stimulation in short-term activities.

Channel/Specialization 11/56
EXCHANGE - The interested and stimulating exchange of meaningful ideas and stories one has experienced.

This specialization enables me to use language in all its abundance. I am a wonderful storyteller. I am good at wrapping my experiences in life, but also the experiences of others, into stories and anecdotes, and I just love it when I gain the attention of my audience or trigger a response from them. That way, others can be highly stimulated by my ideas and experiences. I am always curious to know things and am forever in search of new ideas and answers. I am much more interested in this process of searching, than in finding the answers or the results. As it is, others frequently find my ideas more valuable than I do. These ideas are therefore less suited to solve my own problems, as the nature and result of this specialization always remains abstract and the answers that I give are not concrete and maybe not directly applicable. "The way is the goal" - that's what is really true of me.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 12 The restraint that checks an expression for appropriateness before speaking or acting.

A state of harmony and peace as the basis for re-assessing the situation and forming new ideas.

Gate 11 is about mentally processing the meaning of experiences in order to develop new ideas. It loves being stimulated by ideas. These ideas need not become manifest, they are mostly meant for others to reflect on. This gate works with the help of the visual memories of Gate 47. It is about abstract ideas and possibilities, not logical facts. They are mental concepts (left eye), which originate from the Sensing Circuit and are supposed to help find the meaning of an experience. As soon as the confusion out of 64/47 has been resolved, a state of peacefulness will be restored and new ideas can develop. The gate's potential is Ideas.

6 Adaptability

♁ ▲ The inner balance and adaptability to recognize that all forms are transitory and there is a need for transitional stages.

Adaptability in periods of transition.

♁ ▼ The adaptability that personally profits at the expense of others even in times of war (war profiteer).

5 Philanthropy

☺ ▲ The expression of philanthropy that shows itself in humanistic ideas and the unselfish commitment to the disenfranchised.

Humanitarian ideas / Commitment out of philanthropy.

♀ ▼ The inclination to give away ideas and resources out of a sense of insecurity so as to be left in peace.

4 Teaching

Harmonic Gate 22 Outwardness as a product of individual moods and emotional awareness.

Channel/Specialization 22/12
OPENNESS - Having an impact through the appropriate articulation of personal moods and emotions.

This specialization enables me to express my emotions very individually and at any time. This can come across as charming, but also cruel, fierce or wild. I should be careful to do only things I feel like doing, things I am in the mood for at the moment. This quality can then prove a very enriching experience for others, too. When I am in the mood, I can be a very social and open person. As it is very important for me to have the opportunity to express my moods, it is advisable to wait or to sense whether or not other people are ready for it at that very moment. This specialization can manifest itself in considerable musical qualities. Many singers, musicians and conductors possess this gift. When I follow my passions and emotions, the most essential thing to have is emotional clarity, so that my very individual expressions can be "heard" and possible resistance can be diminished.

Appropriateness

The restraint that checks an expression for appropriateness before speaking or acting.

Gate 12 is about the appropriate articulation of emotional moods. It wants to express its emotions properly, so that others can understand them, thereby overcoming a standstill. In this acoustic gate it is about the way you say things, rather than what you say. It is necessary to exercise caution and restraint towards society in order to release the individual emotionality that originates from the solar plexus without hurting others or getting hurt. This gate even communicates without saying anything at all - and that is through its aura. Depending on the mood, it can either withdraw completely or be extremely communicative. The gate's potential is the Appropriateness of Communication or Action.

6 Metamorphosis	☉ ▲	The open expression of transformation and change.
	⊕ ▼	Adaptation that resignedly accepts social limits and makes new forms of expression impossible.
	☉ ▲	Based on one's social experiences expressions can be made with appropriate caution.
5 Pragmatism	☉ ▲	Pragmatic caution with regard to society.
	♂ ▼	The boldness to forget social experiences and caution and express oneself inappropriately.
	⊕ ▲	The ability in times of stillstand to make an effective appearance and rouse other people.
4 Motivation	⊕ ▲	The ability to spread a spirit of change.
	♀ ▼	The voice in the wilderness which in its need for interaction does not find the appropriate expression and thus falls on deaf ears.
	♂ ▲	One's own inadequacies are recognized and unjustified vanities can be purged through reflection.
3 Self-criticism	♂ ▲	The ability for critical self-analysis.
	♂ ▼	Inadequacies in social interaction are neither recognized nor reflected upon, which leads to rejection and thus to self-hatred.
	☿ ▲	The expression of disciplined caution towards society in order to maintain a state of pureness.
2 Caution	☿ ▲	Disciplined caution with regard to society.
	♀ ▼	Out of boredom that arises from withdrawal one seeks for stimulation prematurely and abandons caution.
	♀ ▲	The value of individual withdrawal is acknowledged by others, as they know that beauty and harmony will unfold impressively when the time is right.

EVALUATION - The expression and communication of carefully and wisely collected experiences.

This specialization enables me to pass on and communicate experiences and the insights I gained from them. These "lessons of the past" can save others from making the same mistakes. The past is an important source of information for me. I am a great listener and a born collector of information. Be it in the form of photo albums, neat bookkeeping files or a review of historical events. It is a gift that many historians, political satirists or politicians possess. I often know more than I say, and I may even have knowledge of secrets that are not intended for everyone to hear. I have an excellent memory and am frequently asked for advice when situations need to be viewed on a deeper level or one needs to take a look behind the scenes. This specialization can prove extremely valuable in leadership roles, when it is important to learn from experiences and findings of the past. I need to listen carefully and seek opportunities to retreat and process what I heard in order to allow this gift to unfold completely.

Gate 13 carries the potential for hearing experiences and sharing them. It attracts other people's stories quite naturally and in doing so, hears many secrets and experiences that are not shared with everyone. It is about communicating experiences within society as well as about preserving memories and cycles of experiences - not only of individuals, but of humankind as a whole. It is the role of the direction of the Self that results from the past. This gate is particularly open to interaction and listening in order to find orientation in reflecting on the past. This specialization enables me to devote my energy to creative work and, at the same time, provide direction to others. My mission in life is a very individual one. I am capable of encouraging others to recognize and follow my attitude. I have tremendous charisma that can strongly influence the direction other people will take. At the same time, I will hardly ever be dissuaded from following my path and my inner attitude. It is a gift that many people who are in the center of public attention possess. Almost every anchorman and anchorwoman has that specialization. It is the clearly visible expression of stance and "backbone". It is the "anchor" that can provide orientation to others. This specialization is the central aspect of transpersonal force fields. When I work in a team, I will always exert a strong and trend-setting influence.

Capacity

Gathering and mangaging resources as well as the clever use of capacities in interactions.

Gate 14 holds the vital force and capacity for individual creation. The potential is to love what you do and to do what you love. Under these conditions any act of creation will increase one's energy instead of spending it. It represents the force to find one's own direction in life by making use of one's individual creative power. This gate loves to work and knows how to come into "possession in great measure" through its abundant resources. However, it is not about heaping up large amounts of material possessions, but applying one's capacity in an act of serving others. The real key to unfolding this potential is to avoid becoming a slave while, at the same time, remain being generous towards others. The gate's potential is Capacity. In the Penta Force Field and also in the O16 Force Field (Wa) Gate 14 is the Central Gate.

☉ ▲ Remaining humble and grateful in material success and wealth.

6 Humility

Humility to accept a higher will.

⊕ ▼ Exuberantly considering material success one's personal merit, as the fortunate circumstances are overlooked.

☉ ▲ The self-confidence to know how capacities have to be used.

5 Self-confidence

Power through innate dignity.

♀ ▼ Surrounding oneself with yes-men to maintain one's own power and avoid criticism.

☪ ▲ The individual ability to establish firm material foundations.

4 Security

Strong foundations protect and provide security.

♂ ▼ The promise of material security that cannot be kept due of a lack of skills.

⊕ ▲ The selfless use of energy for the benefit and support of others.

3 Serving

To serve and selflessly contribute to society.

♂ ▼ The greed to use energy only for one's own benefit.

☯ ▲ The ability to distinguish when it is time to call in the experts and when the individual way will lead to success.

2 Management

The wisdom to know when experts are needed for expansion.

♂ ▼ The vanity to consider oneself in possession of the only possible truth.

☯ ▲ The knowledge how to use resources for achieving the higher principles.

1 Higher principles

The key to power is higher principles.

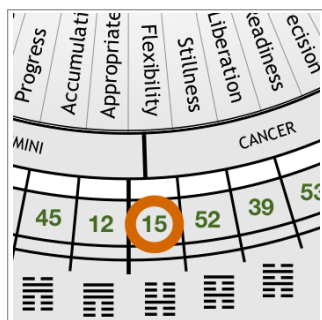

♀ ▼ The wasting of resources without higher principles and the belief that money can solve everything.

ASSIMILIATION - One's own patterns and rhythms merging with those of one's environment. Living life in the flow.

Due to this specialization others may feel "magnetically" drawn to me. I can put other people in a state of harmony that represents the harmony of life. When I am in tune with "the flow" of my life force, I will have a very positive influence on others. When I am not, the effect on people around me will be rather adverse and disharmonious. At any rate, the way I feel will always have a substantial effect. This specialization is of immense importance for any kind of team process, as it provides the power to merge the individual force fields of people into one transpersonal force field. As long as I remain true to my integrity and feel comfortable with it, I am capable of bringing other people into the wonderful flow of life - without any further effort.

Gate 15 is the direction that arises out of flexibility. It is capable of adapting to extreme or changing circumstances. The entire range of human extremes and differences will be accepted in this gate - as it is the love for humankind with all its extremes. The gate's aura is magnetic and attracts others. Here, people can turn to everything that is possible in terms of extremes. Fixed patterns can be broken in order to adjust to changing circumstances. At a physical level this gate fulfils an important function: To suspend fixed rhythms as needed - for instance, staying awake if required, or rising particularly early. The gate's potential is Flexibility. In Penta this gate is responsible for „sucking in“ the Penta frequencies from the individual auras, so as to build the basis for a Penta Force Field in the first place.

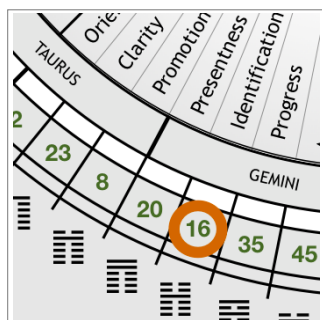

6 Self-defence	☯ ▲ The power of the Self to explore extremes in order to find and eliminate the weakest point.

CONCEPTION - Establishing precise and foresighted concepts that show the logical way into the future (organizational talent).

Endowed with this kind of specialization, I need a lot of information before I can speak. The opinions I voice have to be backed up by facts and details. Other people are usually impressed by my detailed knowledge. However, when speaking out of turn, I can easily bore others with seemingly unnecessary details. This specialization is closely connected to the right eye. This eye is meant to discern logical patterns and focus on the details. I am a very visually oriented person. Pictures and graphical representation are important for me. Very often I can say more in a sketch than with words. I have the qualities of a "logical think tank". I excel at organizing others and leading them with foresight towards the future. My management qualities and organizational talent are based on my ability to grasp all details of a structure and detect possible flaws and deviations. Such qualities are in great demand in any enterprise or organization and are as such very welcome.

Formulating useful opinions as a basis for organizing systems with foresight.

Gate 17 is the ability to mentally process information into logical opinions. Here, one's understanding is organized into logical formulas that serve to anticipate the future. One's perception of the future is then turned into a concept. Opinions require a logical basis in order for them to be understood and withstand scrutiny and criticism. Note that this does not mean that the facts are actually correct. This is about theoretical opinions used for the formation of concepts and about being able to organize systems and structures. Gate 17 is the right eye, which sees clearly in the Now. It sees the details and knows how to project them into the future as patterns. The gate's potential is the Formation of Opinions.

	☶ ▲ As the nature of interdependency in systems is understood, opinions that are of value to others can be expressed.
6 Enlightenment	Who wants to lead must be able to serve. ☵ ▼ Where understanding is achieved, one is tempted to believe that there is nothing more to learn.
5 Synthesis	☲ ▲ The mental potential to form syntheses on the basis of many opinions and to recognize the value of collective intelligence in social communities. To recognize the value of collective intelligence. ☰ ▼ The arrogance to consider one's opinion the only valid one despite evidence to the contrary and not to recognize the value of collective intelligence.
4 The personnel manager	☱ ▲ A deep understanding of the motivations and potentials of others and the ability to organize successful structures. The personnel manager who understands the talents of others. ☵ ▼ The tendency to accept would-be followers in order to share one's own opinions regardless of the followers' motivations.
3 Understanding	☱ ▲ The mental potential to develop opinions and concept in detail in order to make them verifiable and supportable. The experience to follow the road of success. ⊕ ▼ The taking of shortcuts. Skipping details limits the value of opinions and concepts.
2 Selectivity	☶ ▲ The keen sense to enter the right relationships for pursuing higher purposes together and forming opinions. To recognize productive associations with keen perceptiveness. ☶ ▼ The possibility of being opinionated can lead to isolation.
1 Openness	☰ ▲ The mental potential to sustain a broad spectrum of opinions and stimuli and to draw meaning from many different opinions. OPTIMIZATION - Taking pleasure in improvement and having a talent for optimizing systems on the basis of sound judgement.

This specialization makes me a perfectionist. I immediately see when things are not right or perfect. I have a strong urge to improve things and challenge authorities. This should always relate to improvements concerning the big picture. It is not about finding fault or being dissatisfied with myself. This quality unfolds best when my ability to judge is directed towards collective issues and matters of society. Here, the focus should always be on the process of optimization rather than on the objective. Because there is no such thing as complete perfection. And no one knows better than me.

Judgement

Alert ability to judge that recognizes a need for correction and defends elementary human rights.

Gate 18 is the awareness for survival based on the ability to judge. It is the gate of correcting faults within systems. It possesses a natural sense of detecting mistakes and an innate joy of expressing criticism. This gate is where we receive conditioning from our parents, especially from the parent of the opposite sex. This gate challenges the conditioning by authorities. The rules and measures we were taught are the basic principles for comparison and will be applied to everything: lovers, friends, superiors at work, and also oneself. No matter the circumstances, the need for perfection is a continuous process that never ends. The gate's potential is Judgement.

REGULATION - The sensitive and just regulation of relationships on the basis of needs and principles.

This specialization represents the drive to create a sensitive balance between the individual needs of a community and its effective principles. As far as this is concerned, it is also always a matter of the emotional needs and states of a community. For me, physical closeness or even the act of touching other people serves as an important indicator to find out whether or not someone can become part of my community. Most of all, this gate is about fundamental needs, such as having one's own territory, access to food, contact, emotional closeness and sex. It is the energy that demands the support of the community. Gate 19 is very sensitive to the needs of those around and makes its power available for fulfilling these needs. Channel/Specialization 57/20
SPONTANEITY - The immediate expression of intuitive alertness and awareness (flash of inspiration).

This specialization expresses spontaneous, intuitive awareness. It is the kind of awareness that secures my survival and is faster than any mental process could ever be. I have the ability to improvise at lightning speed in order to secure my personal survival. I do not have to think to be able to speak and act out of this intuitive certainty. I sometimes experience this as "flashes of inspiration" or an impulse to act, which comes out of nowhere. I have to trust these intuitive impulses even though there may be no rational reason to do so. As my spontaneity can appear somewhat irrational, it can easily alienate people around me. The other side of such spontaneous intuition is the fear of the future and the unknown. If I trust my talent for improvisation, I will find it easy to deal with that fear, as fear results in alertness, which in turn is the source of spontaneous awareness. Intuition is closely connected to the sense of hearing. So sometimes I can actually "hear the future" and anticipate it accordingly.

GOVERNANCE - The skillful administration and fair distribution of material resources out of personal integrity.

This specialization challenges me to master life on the material plane. One way of being materially successful is to take things into my own hands and simply have my way. I am a veritable One-Man/ One-Woman Show. As my willpower is very strong, allowing it to unfold naturally can be seen as sheer selfishness. In larger structures my management qualities will attract attention. I sometimes consider democratic processes very cumbersome as I usually think that things should happen exactly the way I want them to. Owing to this specialization, I am capable of getting to the top of a community, to lead and to have control over material processes. If this is not possible or welcome, I prefer to act on my own instead of taking up a subordinate role in society. It is difficult to keep a check on me, and if someone tried it nonetheless, it will be very uncomfortable for me and usually fail to come off. I love to work for my own benefit and not let myself be used for other people's purposes.

Authority

Controlled use of willpower and authority in order to overcome obstacles.

Gate 21 represents deliberate authority and control. It is the willpower to be materially independent and in control of how the community's resources are being distributed. The archetype of the managing director who is in control of the company. This authority and power is most effective when formally bestowed, serving the group or the enterprise for the common good. Gate 21 fights to see the material needs of the community fulfilled. It consciously summons its strength to endure difficult situations. Gate 21 will not accept a micromanaging boss leaning over its shoulder. The gate's potential is Authority.

6 Chaos

☯ ▲ The gruelling stubbornness that does not yield with the use of willpower, even if it leads to disorder.

The use of willpower that can lead to chaos.

♀ ▼ Withdrawal that is necessary if the use of willpower has led to disorder and chaos.

5 Objectivity

⚖ ▲ The balanced character that ensures objectivity and bases its actions on legal principles.

Authority based on objective principles.

☯ ▼ The urge to be in control is so strong that objective conditions are ignored and willpower is used subjectively and emotionally.

4 Strategy

⚖ ▲ Action is based on having clarity about how to successfully use willpower in response to circumstances.

Strategic action through clarity and instinct.

⊕ ▼ The display of power that misses existing circumstances and is therefore attacking windmills, wasting power to no avail.

3 Powerlessness

♂ ▲ The ability for self-guidance which does not need and cannot accept external authority.

Confrontation with superior forces.

⚖ ▼ The refusal of the material process through withdrawal, if self-determined action has become impossible due to other people being in control.

2 Intervention

♂ ▲ Interference that can endanger material success is rejected through powerful action.

Powerful intervention in response to interference.

♂ ▼ The Ego-power cannot be displayed under outside interference, which endangers material success.

1 Warning

♂ ▲ The natural Ego-power that gains respect even without the use of force.

Gaining respect in order to keep peace.

☯ ▼ Forcing the lack of willpower and peacefulness to ask for respect, instead of voicing the necessary warning of a use of force.

Harmonic Gate 12 The restraint that checks an expression for appropriateness before speaking or acting.

Channel/Specialization 22/12
OPENNESS - Having an impact through the appropriate articulation of personal moods and emotions.

This specialization enables me to express my emotions very individually and at any time. This can come across as charming, but also cruel, fierce or wild. I should be careful to do only things I feel like doing, things I am in the mood for at the moment. This quality can then prove a very enriching experience for others, too. When I am in the mood, I can be a very social and open person. As it is very important for me to have the opportunity to express my moods, it is advisable to wait or to sense whether or not other people are ready for it at that very moment. This specialization can manifest itself in considerable musical qualities. Many singers, musicians and conductors possess this gift. When I follow my passions and emotions, the most essential thing to have is emotional clarity, so that my very individual expressions can be "heard" and possible resistance can be diminished.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 47 The mental process of interpreting memories with patience and confidence in order to facilitate understanding.

Mood

Outwardness as a product of individual moods and emotional awareness.

Gate 22 is about the emotional mood and state of mind. Depending on the mood, it will be social or antisocial. Due to its emotional depth it empowers others and encourages them to live their spirit. When it is in a good mood, it can present itself as graceful and charming, also towards strangers, and thus contribute to an opening up of emotions and mutation. It is associated with the left ear, which is linked to the Emotional Center. Everything one hears with the left ear will be received as an emotional message - those are not facts, but moods of the moment. The gate's potential is Mood.

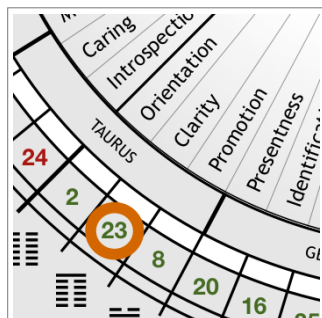

6	Maturity	☯ ▲	The perfect mastering of form can convey substance clearly and appropriately, which results in leadership and authority.
		♂ ▼	The non-conformist social interaction relinquishes acknowledgement from the outside, thereby probably transgressing existing rules of form.
5	Directness	☯ ▲	The ability to unfold individual behavior directly, based on emotional awareness, even if behavioral codes are transgressed.
		♂ ▼	The tendency to create embarrassing situations through crude and seemingly impertinent provocations, which nonetheless contribute to development.
4	Sensitivity	☯ ▲	The simple and direct openness that thinks little of rituals and rejects social formalities.
		♂ ▼	The sensitive need for formality limits social openness and makes relationships unnecessarily complicated.
3	Enchantment	☯ ▲	Enchanting grace which knows how to align form and substance or, in other words, emotional energy and awareness.
		♂ ▼	Unconscious and enchanting grace that shows itself in an innate openness, but probably cannot keep its promises.
2	School of etiquette	☯ ▲	The ability to delude oneself and others, as etiquette is given priority.
		☯ ▼	The form is put above substance, which indeed shows the grace of good manners, but cannot compensate for substantial emptiness.
1	Subordination	☯ ▲	The graceful acceptance of one's position and the ability to take on a subordinate role as appropriate to one's status.
		♂ ▼	The humiliation that comes with using emotional energy to claim more than one's due.

STRUCTURING - The structured and clear expression of individual insights (from genius to freak).

This specialization allows me to express very individual thoughts and insights. This enables me to considerably change the way the world is perceived. It is not a matter of gradually improving or modifying things that exist, but of completely restructuring the way energy can be used more efficiently. The individual knowledge I share can cause quantum leaps. In organizations this capacity will help me contribute to attaining new levels of productivity and efficiency. However, my insights are not always welcome and sometimes cannot even be heard. My innovative insights develop best when I am asked to express them. Frequently, these insights pop up quite unexpectedly, even for me, and I may hear myself talking without even knowing where the things I say come from. I therefore can find it difficult to prepare for an interview or a speech. Because the moment I start talking, the things I say may be completely different to the ones I prepared.

Clarity

Clear expression of individual multiformity of awareness and understanding.

Gate 23 expresses individual knowledge. It is the assimilation of an individual person's knowledge made possible through language. Whenever individual insights have to be communicated to others, Gate 23 knows how to express itself clearly, earn the collective's respect and overcome intolerance. Individual knowledge may be ingenious, freaky and sometimes even incoherent. These inner voices and insights must be translated and put into an appropriate context, ready to be shared at the right moment. Only then can other people understand and use them. The gate's potential is Clarity.

Channel/Specialization 61/24
KNOWING - New ways of thinking that suddenly reveal themselves during contemplation.

This specialization makes me one of the great thinkers of the world. I am able to inspire others to think about the mysteries of life. My mind is forever exploring new intellectual areas and does so in completely new ways. I am thus capable of bringing new thoughts and ways of thinking into the world and also want to be recognized for it. I need and love times of silence so that I can "listen" to my thoughts. It may very well be that I even experience noises or voices in my head. Making or listening to music can have a very soothing effect on me and help me reduce my mental pressure. My mind is prone to bouts of melancholy, as I can neither control it nor force insights to occur. My flashes of inspiration come suddenly and unexpectedly. Usually, these inspirations have nothing to do with solving the problems of my own life, but serve to inspire others to look at life in a completely different light.

Introspection

The mental process which, following introspection, facilitates spontaneous renewal through individual truths.

Gate 24 is the mental processing of individual knowledge by way of introspection. It is the ability of the mind to select inspiring questions and repeat and re-process them until they have been rationalized and mental calmness can be restored. Inspiration must have a rational form for one to be able to communicate an individual truth to the collective. Due to the ever-recurring process of pondering and reflecting, Gate 24 holds the potential for recognizing individual truth through careful introspection. The gate's potential is Introspection.

	☯ ▲	The ability to focus on the rational thought process which easily recognizes opportunities.
6 Opportunity		The focus on rational thought processes.
	☯ ▼	Deaf ears that lead to missed opportunities because of suspicion.
	☯ ▲	The courage to admit mistakes of past thinking, thus opening the way to new opportunities.

UNIQUENESS - Naturally following one's unique and individual path with courage.

This specialization makes me a highly competitive person. I want to be the first in everything I do, and I am very much aware of my uniqueness. Others may therefore consider me very bold or else, shocking. I am capable of crossing boundaries in what I do, open up new areas and allow my unique spirit to unfold. I can empower others to do things they would not dare to do on their own. I was born with the power of initiation, which also boosts the competition of ideas and creative processes in my professional life. Nor am I afraid of taking a leap of faith, trying out things other people have not yet even thought of. When I do so, I keep pushing the limit. The source of this power is my determination to follow my unique path, which seems to me the natural and only thing to do.

Naturalness

The innocent disposition that manifests itself perfectly in its naturalness.

Gate 25 implies being in innocent naturalness. It is the potential to keep one's innocence despite the circumstances. It is the gate of universal, unconditional love. Not in the sense of passionate or personal love, but of all-embracing, transcended love. Its innocence is always severely tested, which is why it is also the gate of the spiritual warrior, the shaman and the priest. Gate 25 is the scar, the wound that heals and helps to survive because, like blood, it has the ability to purify itself over and over again, and return to its original state of innocence. The gate's potential is Naturalness.

⊕ ▲ Innocence manifests itself in naive actions.

6 Naivety

♂ ▽ Inappropriate action which brings down the facade of innocence and manifests naivety.

♀ ▲ The power of the spiritual attitude to heal and be healed in order to overcome suffering.

5 Healing

The innocent power to heal / be healed.

♀ ▽ The hypochondriac urge to remain in suffering in order to be healed by others.

♀ ▲ The spiritual attitude and innocence are maintained regardless of the environment or circumstances. The beauty of the rose in the garbage dump.

4 Innocence

Maintaining the nature of true innocence.

- ▽ The spiritual attitude can only manifest itself in the right environment and will break when circumstances change.

♂ ▲ The spiritual attitude which understands that innocent action is no guarantee for success yet, as well as the spiritual power to withstand shock and failure.

3 Sensibility

The power to withstand failure and shock.

♂ ▽ The loss of innocence and the spiritual attitude through shock or misfortune, which can even lead to crime or suicide.

♀ ▲ The perfected and innocent focus on what is, rather than what could be.

2 Existentialism

Devoted and innocent admiration of the Now.

♂ ▽ To lose oneself in projections of what could be, instead of seeing what is real.

♂ ▲ The innocent selflessness that acts without motive and faces the challenges.

INFLUENCE - The influence on the community based on adequate cooperation and skillful tactic.

This specialization enables me to use my instincts to sell or convey messages, products or my truth. It is my biggest gift to adapt my expressions to the target audience so that my messages can be understood and I can thus reach my goal. I am very quick in adjusting my position to suit the environment, which enables me to swiftly react to changing market conditions and demands. I have a keen sense of what works and who can be of value to a team at which position. It is the instinctive and creative art of doing business. And this is always a balancing act between manipulation and creating value for customers or buyers. Many people with this kind of specialization are businessmen and -women, filmmakers, journalists, advertising specialists or salespeople. Being effective is one of the qualities of this specialization. In other words, to optimize the rate between input and output in order to reach one's goals with perhaps a little less effort.

27

The nourishing power that facilitates well-being through caring warmth.

Gate 27 is the vital force of preservation through caring. It represents the kind of protection that is capable of fostering, nourishing and caring for the offspring until they become independent. First one has to learn how to care for oneself, only then will one be able to care for others. This gate knows all sorts of caring, from self-sacrifice to greed. Every kind of activity gets upgraded through painstaking attention and care. It is also the gate of compassion and caring for the weak and the sick, and hence deeply social. The gate's potential is Caring.

"I did it my way" is what I will be able to say at the end of my life owing to this specialization. I have a strong urge to do things my way, and that does not necessarily have to be the easiest way. Sometimes I am alone and left to my own devices on this - my individual - path. What makes sense in my life does, for others, not necessarily have to be something worth striving for. People may say I'm stubborn or risk too much, but to give up the path once taken is not in my nature. For me, a good fight is more important than victory. If there is nothing worth fighting for, I can start feeling melancholic. The reasons I am fighting for can seem pointless to some, or provide direction to others by way of setting an example.

Risk

28

The intuitive awareness that everything in life involves risks, that life is transient and therefore needs to have a purpose.

Gate 28 is about survival by taking risks, making it clear that life always involves risks. It is the potential intuition to know whether or not it makes sense to fight. It means knowing whether or not it pays to be unrelenting, to run a risk that might put life in danger or make life possible in the first place. The challenge is life itself, and the task is to feel alive and provide one's life with a sense of purpose and meaning. It is an individual gate that wants to know whether or not its individual life is of value. Here the individual must face the challenges alone and therefore has to know intuitively whether or not it makes sense to fight. The gate's potential is the Readiness to take Risks.

6	Blaze of glory	☯ ▲ The readiness to fight for the meaning of life, and to rather sacrifice oneself instead of not finding it. Wanting to win whatever the cost.
		☿ ▼ The fear of defeat leads to self-destructive hopelessness in times of struggle.
5	Provocation	☯ ▲ The ability to provoke others in order to have them give meaning to their lives.
		☹ ▼ The destabilizing effect on others, when their alliances are unfaithfully broken to find the meaning of life elsewhere.
4	Holding on	☯ ▲ The intuitive possibility for using all means to hold on to one's goals and be able to continue the struggle.
		☿ ▼ To stubbornly and selfishly apply reason while holding on.
3	Adventurism	☯ ▲ The intuitive caution to apply reason even in adventurous undertakings.
		☿ ▼ The inadequate attempt to rationally assess risks, which usually leads to failure.
2	Alliances	☯ ▲ The intuitive acceptance of dubious alliances, as the end justifies the means.
		☿ ▼ The risk that even unpleasant alliances, where one has to sacrifice principles, may not lead to success.
1	Preparation	♂ ▲ The intuitive ability to recognize risks allows for preparation with a focus on the details.
		♀ ▼ Planning with attention to details becomes an end in itself and there is no potential for application, as the risk is considered too high.

Harmonic Gate 46 The openness to utilize favourable circumstances with effort and dedication (serendipity).

Channel/Specialization 29/46
DISCOVERY - Being available to commit oneself to ever new and complete processes of experience.

This specialization enables me to see experiences to the end. However, if I enter into such a process without being fully committed, it may well end up with me learning nothing and leave only chaos in its wake. The value of a completed cycle of experience will only disclose itself at the end of the process. It is therefore of utmost importance to venture into such processes without expectations, as one usually never knows how things will turn out and experiences only prove their value in retrospect. This is the specialization for discovery and exploration. Just like Christopher Columbus discovered America instead of India, I am - with the proper kind of commitment - capable of making discoveries that cannot be planned or predicted. On the one hand, I am able to attain goals that seem out of reach to others, and on the other hand, fail in areas that do not present a problem to other people at all. My commitment is the prerequisite - but not the guarantee - for success. If I do not feel committed to an experience, a path once taken can lead into crisis or disappointment.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 30 Despite the fieriness of emotions the limits set by destiny are being acknowledged and accepted.

Gate 29 is the vital force to commit oneself to experiences and persevere. It holds the potential to become fully involved in a process without knowing where one is headed. It is the gate of “Saying Yes” to life and experiences. It provides the vital force that keeps a person at what they do, no matter how difficult the circumstances. It is persistent and will also accept tasks and responsibilities just to have something that requires staying power. Sometimes it is also the gate of “Saying No” to life, if it does not accept that life can be difficult, too. The gate’s potential is Commitment. In the Penta Force Field it is the aspect of Commitment.

6	Blind luck	♂ ▲	The drive is so powerful that an experience is made even without the awareness of what good it will do. Blind luck.
		⚡ ▼	A leap in the dark.
5	Overreaching oneself	☯ ▲	The question about Why and What for is so strong that the experience cannot be made and there is withdrawal instead.
		⊕ ▼	The drive to say Yes is so powerful that one can easily overreach oneself.
4	Directness	⊕ ▼	To say yes, even if there are not sufficient resources.
		⚡ ▼	Overreaching oneself as one's own strength is believed to be bigger than it is. Ambition that gets shipwrecked.
3	Caution	☯ ▲	The wisdom to choose the simplest and most direct approach to solving problems.
		♀ ▼	Directness in solving problems.
2	The ability to judge	♀ ▼	The fierceness and recklessness of dealing with problems directly can arouse rejection in others.
		♂ ▲	The ability to wait, as there is no clarity for a binding decision and the outcome of an experience is still uncertain.
1	Fulfilment of duties	⚡ ▼	Cautious evaluation whether inaction makes more sense.
		☯ ▲	The basic inability to make commitments. Caution and fear of failure are too strong, so that commitments cannot be entered.
		☯ ▲	The ability to judge and the caution to assess the challenges of an experience and only accept it when one feels properly forearmed.
		♀ ▼	Assessing whether commitment is appropriate.
		♀ ▼	The inability to assess whether an experience should be made and whether one's strength will hold out to the end.
		♂ ▲	The ability to say Yes to new experiences and the power to hang on until the experience has been concluded.
		♂ ▲	The power to persevere as long as necessary.

This specialization provides me with a strong drive to make new emotional experiences. I have dreams and visions that are not always intended to become reality. Owing to these dreams and desires other people may see me as insatiable and feel put under pressure, causing them to get restless or nervous. Not every desire is made to last, though. I will always benefit from waiting for emotional clarity as far as my emotional wishes are concerned. For me, patience is a challenge and learning lesson. Not everything that I want here and now will still be of importance tomorrow. It is therefore advisable for me not to make emotional decisions on the spur of the moment, but wait for the wave of emotions to complete before confronting others with my enthusiasm.

Despite the fieriness of emotions the limits set by destiny are being acknowledged and accepted.

Gate 30 is the emotional fieriness that longs for new and fateful experiences. It is the gate of a deep and intensive desire for emotional encounters. A large number of desires, wishes, and longings originate in this gate. It is bursting to make new experiences and try out all kinds of things, even if one's fate is uncertain and reality may not live up to expectations. It is a thirst and a hunger for change, a desire to feel one's destiny, the emotional wave of hope and pain, of expectation and disappointment. The potential for emotional awareness lies between these extreme poles. The feeling of pain that yearns for a change and prays to the Fates for mercy. The gate's potential is Fieriness that can be contagious.

LEADING - Leadership as a means of effectively expressing a strategic direction and role.

This specialization enables me to develop genuine leadership qualities. I know how to discern patterns and trends, how to use them to develop strategies and present them in a way that will put me in a position to influence the collective and lead them into the future. Here it is important to be nominated and authorized by the community to do so. This can happen in the form of a distinct mandate or by way of democratic elections. So it is not about developing an autocratic leadership style, but about putting the needs of the collective into the focus of attention. I may not always be the formal leader, but once I have mastered a subject, I will always be able to exert influence based on that. This can, for instance, also be the case should I be an artist. Basically, this is about my natural gift to lead the collective toward an assured future. It is not a matter of satisfying one's individual claim to power, but of putting this gift at the disposal of the collective in a serving way.

Gate 31 is the expression of leadership into the future. It has a strong influence on others, most of all by way of language. This gate says, "I lead". The strategies (Gate 7) which need to become manifest, must reach those who can put them into practice. Gate 31 is the figurehead who exerts influence and assumes leadership. It puts into words which of the strategies will achieve the desired results. It will be heard, provided that it has been formally appointed by the collective. The gate's potential is Influence that unfolds within the collective and serves the collective. In the Penta Force Field it is the aspect of Structure and Administration.

Continuity

32

The instinctive awareness that continuity within the community can only be achieved through making changes.

Gate 32 represents the awareness of survival through continuity within the community. It is the instinct for the true value of someone or something. On the one hand, survival at a material level requires the community to adapt and transform while, on the other hand, it preserves what has been established. It means being aware of what needs to be changed in order to ensure continuity. It is the archetype of the conservative CFO, who acts with caution, as careful practice will secure long-term success and prevent material failure. The gate's potential is Continuity through Change, also for the benefit of the community.

	☯ ▲	The instinctive awareness that change and transformation can be accepted with equanimity.
6 Inner tranquility	Tranquility that calmly faces changes.	☹ ▼ Fear that is engendered when change is experienced as impermanence, which can lead to restlessness, depression and self-destruction.
	☺ ▲	The instinct to effortlessly adapt to existing circumstances in times of change.
5 Flexibility	Flexible adaption to changed circumstances.	♂ ▼ The urge to express one's personality through the - often violent - rejection of conformism and adaptation.
	☯ ▲	The instinct to maintain basic and enduring principles even in times of change.
4 Right is might	To maintain one's principles in times of change.	☹ ▼ Maintaining the basic and enduring principles only as long as one's own security is not threatened.
	♀ ▲	The instinct and intelligence not to make hasty decisions, when persistent and renewed assessment is called for.
3 Indecision	Indecision in times of transformation.	☹ ▼ The overreliance on traditional norms, which prevents timely adaptation in times of change and thus jeopardizes continuity.
	♀ ▲	The control of power for the benefit and enhancement of harmony. Restraint that can also be beneficial to continuity.
2 Restraint	The restraint of power for the enhancement of harmony.	☹ ▼ The tendency, out of frustration about constraints or external control, to socially withdraw instead of remaining firmly in control.
	☺ ▲	The life-sustaining and respectful consideration of all aspects of a process to maintain the continuity of the community.
1 Conservation	Conservation through attention to all aspects.	♂ ▼ The uncontrollable urge based on ambition to be successful which due to a lack of attention misses details and puts continuity at risk.

EVALUATION - The expression and communication of carefully and wisely collected experiences.

This specialization enables me to pass on and communicate experiences and the insights I gained from them. These "lessons of the past" can save others from making the same mistakes. The past is an important source of information for me. I am a great listener and a born collector of information. Be it in the form of photo albums, neat bookkeeping files or a review of historical events. It is a gift that many historians, political satirists or politicians possess. I often know more than I say, and I may even have knowledge of secrets that are not intended for everyone to hear. I have an excellent memory and am frequently asked for advice when situations need to be viewed on a deeper level or one needs to take a look behind the scenes. This specialization can prove extremely valuable in leadership roles, when it is important to learn from experiences and findings of the past. I need to listen carefully and seek opportunities to retreat and process what I heard in order to allow this gift to unfold completely.

The wisdom to restrict the use of power.

▽ The headless enthusiasm for a release of power leads to premature exhaustion and a loss of one's energy midway.

5 Annihilation

▲ The power to completely break resistance if necessary, but also the refusal to release power when others are expecting it.

The elimination of resistance through power.

▽ Power for power's sake. The need to always release and display power, even when completely unnecessary.

4 Triumph

▲ The ability to display and use power, but at the same time restrain it in such a way that its legitimacy cannot be challenged.

The freedom to the use of power in triumph.

▽ The Ego-gratification through the unrestrained and ruthless use of power, which inevitably leads to abuse. As the perpetrator or the victim.

3 Machismo

▲ The natural display of power that can be accompanied by a sense of machismo and strongly defines the nature of power.

The display of power that can be delusional.

▽ The reasoned, calculated and distinct display of power which can also be perceived as a threat, a bluff or the fanning of a peacock's tail.

2 Momentum

▲ The ability to increase power and not lose perspective when victory is within reach. The clever use of momentum.

Momentum when success is in sight.

▽ The impatient tendency to get elated when victory is imminent, which could, however, threaten victory as one might get carried away.

1 Intimidation

▲ Displaying one's power to intimidate others.

To display power as a response to frustration.

Owing to this specialization I have a thirst for seeking new experiences wherever I go and master the ups and downs of life. This is how I gather worldly wisdom. I am open to almost any kind of emotional adventure, even if it is of a sexual nature. This wealth of experiences makes me a "Jack-of-all-trades". And I know how to share my experiences with others. I may have a hard time not to keep searching for new and exciting adventures. But not every experience will meet my expectations. Still, I have to make them; after all, I am not interested in the result, but in the experience itself. As long as I learn to trust my emotional clarity before jumping into a new adventure, I can reduce the risk of being disappointed, and the experiences can actually lead to progress. I can get bored when I'm "caught" in long-term relationships or jobs, when challenges gradually abate and there is no more progress in sight.

Progress

35

Progress that develops through emotional experiences with other people.

Gate 35 expresses experiences that lead to progress. It is the end of an emotional experience, the closing of a cycle that absorbs, collects and presents impressions while always being eager for change. Gate 35 gets bored when nothing happens, and it is driven to become a jack-of-all-trades who tries out everything in order to have experienced everything. For that purpose it always needs other people with whom to live through experiences. Gate 35 feels exactly when a change is due, that something new is just around the corner, that the wheel must keep on turning. The gate's potential is Progress.

	☳ ▲	The energy to recognize which corrections are necessary to facilitate progress, and the ambition to carry out these corrections in time.
6 Correction	☳ ▼	The energy to correct in order to eliminate evil. The severeness in correction that is met with resistance in the community and has a rather destructive effect instead of facilitating progress. "By hook or by crook."
	☷ ▲	The selfless recognition that true progress must be for the benefit of the whole.
5 Altruism	☷ ▼	The selfless sacrifice for the benefit of common progress. Dissatisfaction, believing that one does not get one's fair share due to one's selflessness.
	☾ ▲	The insatiable appetite for progress, which may be obsessive when the moon is full and only abates in old age.
4 Obsessiveness	☾ ▼	The insatiable appetite for progress. The hunger for personal progress ingores the interests of others which results in retributions from them.
	☵ ▲	The ability to bring progressive change into the lives of others through collaboration, which also serves one's personal development.
3 Cooperation	☵ ▼	To bring progress into other people's lives. The need to be the center of change ignores the contributions of others and thereby inhibits progress.
	☴ ▲	The insight that inspiration comes and goes and progress cannot be forced.
2 Stagnation	☴ ▼	The lack of inspiration that stops progress. Uninspired action engendered by the fear of stillstand cannot support progress.
	☶ ▲	The ability to accept rejection as a part of the process that leads to progress.
1 Humility	☶ ▼	The humility to accept the rejection of progress. The loss of self-worth when one is rejected. The self-destructive reaction when rejection is perceived as a humiliation.

EXPERIENCE - Progress based on going through and mastering emotional experiences.

Owing to this specialization I have a thirst for seeking new experiences wherever I go and master the ups and downs of life. This is how I gather worldly wisdom. I am open to almost any kind of emotional adventure, even if it is of a sexual nature. This wealth of experiences makes me a "Jack-of-all-trades". And I know how to share my experiences with others. I may have a hard time not to keep searching for new and exciting adventures. But not every experience will meet my expectations. Compassion

36

The willingness to be affected by crises as they are perceived as an opportunity for development.

Gate 36 represents emotional affectability. Potentially, it is the strongest outlet for emotions in the Emotion Center, as it can push emotional experiences to the highest heights as well as into the deepest crisis. Here, inexperience is turned into experience. Even though it is only about a change of emotions, this change is seen as something that is either dreaded - a crisis - or desperately longed for. In the stream of emotions, so much longing and desire has piled up, that when the experience is actually lived through, the emotional outburst is inevitable. In this case, the climax of the experience could also be a deep emotional crisis. It is not before the end of the cycle that one will know what purpose it served. The gate's potential is Emotional Affectability.

☵ ▲ The possibility to master crisis by maintaining a correct attitude.

6 Justice

The knowledge that justice will triumph.

☵ ▼ The sorrow and cynicism that comes with seeing that nothing one does can avoid crisis.

☶ ▲ The individual survival of crisis and experiences, no matter the circumstances, even if one has generated the crisis oneself.

5 The underground

To survive regardless of conditions.

☵ ▼ The self-betraying nervousness, believing that a crisis were already over. "Rejoicing too soon."

☶ ▲ The gift to prepare for crisis through secret or esoteric knowledge so as to escape decline.

4 Secrets

Secret knowledge as a protection against crisis.

☶ ▼ When decline is imminent, to opportunistically offer experiences or secret knowledge to others for an appropriate consideration.

☶ ▲ The ability to recognize when the power of decline has been fully spent and a new order can be established out of the ashes of the old.

3 Transformation

To endure crisis in order to establish new orders.

☵ ▼ The inability to let go of the old, believing it could be integrated into a new experience.

☵ ▲ The emotional experiences and fantasy which can be helpful to others in times of crisis.

2 Support

The imaginative assistance to others in times of crisis.

☶ ▼ Providing assistance only to a select number of people or only when it can't be avoided.

☵ ▲ The emotional power to imperturbably persevere and handle crisis despite opposition.

1 Steadfastness

To handle emotional crisis with steadfastness.

This specialization is highly tactile and closely connected to the intake of food. This is why I should only do business with people I know in person and would want to have dinner with. I prefer to discuss interests or negotiate contracts and agreements over a business meal. For me, doing business with friends is the natural thing to do, and accordingly at some point I will make friends with the people I conduct business with. In such kind of relationships it is especially important to remain fair and stick to the rules of the game. Otherwise things could end up in highly emotional separations, once it comes to the famous last straw that broke the camel's back.

Loyalty

37

The manifestation of orderly coexistence in loyal and supportive communities.

Gate 37 is about emotional affiliation and loyalty - in friendship, in marriage, within the family and community. It offers support and nourishes those who belong to a group. However, the offered loyalty and warmth ask for something in return, since every marriage and every community only works when based on agreements. This gate is an emotional outlet for anger, if such agreements are broken. For a long time it will remain good-natured, until at one point an emotional outburst becomes inevitable. This is when its friendly sensitiveness can turn into pure hatred. The gate's potential is Loyalty.

	♀ ▲ The gift of understanding the inner meaning of community and appreciating its values.

"I did it my way" is what I will be able to say at the end of my life owing to this specialization. I have a strong urge to do things my way, and that does not necessarily have to be the easiest way. Sometimes I am alone and left to my own devices on this - my individual - path. What makes sense in my life does, for others, not necessarily have to be something worth striving for. People may say I'm stubborn or risk too much, but to give up the path once taken is not in my nature. For me, a good fight is more important than victory. If there is nothing worth fighting for, I can start feeling melancholic. The reasons I am fighting for can seem pointless to some, or provide direction to others by way of setting an example.

It represents the pressure that challenges us to defend our own independence and integrity. The Stream of Intuition originates in this gate. EMOTING - Using obstacles as an opportunity for releasing emotional wealth.

This specialization has me ride the rollercoaster of emotions, up one minute, down the next. This is about the never-ending ups and downs in the cycle of joy and sadness, hope and pain. It means riding the surf of the emotional wave, which is a source of melancholy, but also of creativity. One cannot rationalize melancholy. I can only accept it as being an important part of my personality and make use of the creative power that comes out of it. Others may describe me as being capricious and emotionally unpredictable, which is after all a part of this specialization's highly dynamic drive: To provoke others into showing their emotionality. For a long period of time this kind of emotionality can appear to be very cool, only to burst into an unexpected emotional surge, suddenly and impulsively. I have a keen sense of romance and am very sensitive to acoustic stimuli and music. Many artists, especially musicians, poets, but also actors and actresses draw their creative potential from this specialization.

Liberation

The liberation from obstacles that stand in the way of the individual spirit.

Gate 39 is the drive to gain emotional freedom. Its task is to provoke the Spirit and trigger emotions in order to recognize the quality of the Spirit. It is the energy that deals with moods and eliminates emotional obstacles standing in one's way. The value of the obstacle lies in unveiling the individual attitude and the Spirit. Gate 39 seeks challenges and provocation. It provokes others so as to receive emotional attention, which can trigger either positive or negative responses. The gate's potential is Liberation.

	☰ ▲	The practical nature and energy to provoke others by showing them how to solve their problems.
6 The troubleshooter		The natural gift for solving problems practically.
	♂ ▼	The Ego-dominance that uses provocation for self-aggrandizement rather than for the benefit of others.
	☶ ▲	The energy and fantasy to provoke through the imaginative and determined bypassing of obstacles.
5 Single-mindedness		The ability not to overcome but to bypass obstacles.
	♂ ▼	The provocation through hardheadedness, which is sometimes successful and even gets support.
	☰ ▲	The careful judgement and evaluation before provoking at exactly the right time.
4 Temperance		Careful assessment before provoking.
	☯ ▼	The faulty belief that every obstacle must be confronted directly, and the risk of ignoring the circumstances involved.
	☶ ▲	The great benefactor who recognizes the larger framework and provokes through self-sacrifice.
3 Responsibility		To make a sacrifice out of responsibility.

Determination

40

The determination to break free from obligations of the community by being alone.

Gate 40 represents the conscious decision in favour of something or against it. It is the gate of aloneness and refusal. Its ability to work hard for the community and earn money for the family requires the setting of boundaries and the possibility to protect one's Ego. There has to be a certain work-life balance, which is the case if there is sufficient time for oneself and time to rest. This gate fuels one's determination to break free from negative forces in order to survive in the struggle for existence. Gate 40 needs emotional support that can strengthen its will and spur it on in its work for the community. The gate's potential is Determination.

		☰ ▲ The unrelenting power that is maintained through the rejection of negative forces and pauses when there is a need to relax.
4	Organization	⊕ ▼ Rigidity towards negative forces.
		⊕ ▼ The illusion to be strong enough to fulfill everyone's wishes at any time. Trying to suit everybody will at one point lead to an emotional outbreak.
3	Avoidance	☰ ▲ The intuitive power of the Ego to include only positive forces into an organization, so as to have time for taking the necessary breaks.
		♂ ▼ To organize for the purpose of liberation.
2	Liberation	♂ ▼ The overrated power of the Ego that only pays attention to the quantity of support and therefore has to work non-stop to establish a strict order.
		☰ ▲ The strength of the Ego and the humbleness to avoid negative forces even if it means being alone.
1	Relaxation	♂ ▼ Careful consideration to avoid negative forces.
		♂ ▼ The arrogance to overestimate one's strengths in striving for attention and to the inability to recognize which forces to avoid.
		☉ ▲ The power, in aloneness, to recognize who is important and who has a disruptive effect on liberation.
		☉ ▲ To shed disrupting qualities.
		☰ ▼ The inability to withdraw from the disruptive effect of others, which hampers liberation.
		☉ ▲ The ability to relax and enjoy the fruits of one's labour alone.

This specialization provides me with a strong drive to make new emotional experiences. I have dreams and visions that are not always intended to become reality. Owing to these dreams and desires other people may see me as insatiable and feel put under pressure, causing them to get restless or nervous. Not every desire is made to last, though. I will always benefit from waiting for emotional clarity as far as my emotional wishes are concerned. For me, patience is a challenge and learning lesson. Not everything that I want here and now will still be of importance tomorrow. It is therefore advisable for me not to make emotional decisions on the spur of the moment, but wait for the wave of emotions to complete before confronting others with my enthusiasm.

MATURATION - The willingness and energy for growth based on cyclical development (evolution).

Cyclic developments are the very nature of this specialization. My life progresses in the form of a spiral. Its development is best described as going through natural cycles from the beginning to growth to maturity to the end. Still, I do not go round in circles but continuously evolve along the spiral of development. It is important that every cycle needs to be fully completed. Hence I should only start processes that I am willing or able to finish. Only then can I begin with the next loop and actually reach a new level. I can become highly frustrated when I find myself stuck forever in processes that never seem to end. It is vitally important to know which cycles I commit to. For once a new process is started, the cycle must be completed.

Increase

42

The expansion of resources that maximizes growth and brings cycles to a close.

Gate 42 is the vital force that leads to growth. It is also the ability to bring things to a close so that a new cycle can begin. The process of accomplishing things one by one helps you realize, in retrospect, that something has grown and been completed. Gate 42 is the finisher, who sees through what was started in Gate 53. As long as things are unfinished, Gate 42 will feel uncomfortable, as it likes to be free, always striving to close processes and be open to new cycles. This produces the energy needed to complete things. The gate's potential is Increase.

6 Sharing

The power to share the process of growth with others.

☵ ▼ The unhealthy materialism that refuses to share the process of growth with others and encourages aggression.

☶ ▲ Growth that arises out of healthy self-fulfillment and forms the basis of acknowledged influence.

5 Self-fulfilment

Growth that leads to self-fulfilment.

☶ ▼ Self-fulfillment as a strictly inner experience that blooms in the dark and cannot be seen because of withdrawal.

☵ ▲ The ability to recognize who has the resources necessary for collective growth, and the gift to selflessly mediate between them.

4 The middleman

The maturity to bring growth through mediation.

☵ ▼ Even if one recognizes the powers that enhance collective growth, one does not mediate between them out of fear of being left empty-handed.

☰ ▲ The energy and assertiveness to transform mistakes into advantages and accept, even use them as part of the material development process.

3 Trial and error

To accept mistakes in the process of growth.

☵ ▼ Mistakes lead to shame and overcautiousness. The lack of energy and awareness to turn mistakes into valuable experiences.

☶ ▲ The power to recognize and successfully use trends and developments that facilitate growth.

2 Identifying trends

Prudent recognition and use of trends.

STRUCTURING - The structured and clear expression of individual insights (from genius to freak).

This specialization allows me to express very individual thoughts and insights. This enables me to considerably change the way the world is perceived. It is not a matter of gradually improving or modifying things that exist, but of completely restructuring the way energy can be used more efficiently. The individual knowledge I share can cause quantum leaps. In organizations this capacity will help me contribute to attaining new levels of productivity and efficiency. However, my insights are not always welcome and sometimes cannot even be heard. My innovative insights develop best when I am asked to express them. Frequently, these insights pop up quite unexpectedly, even for me, and I may hear myself talking without even knowing where the things I say come from. I therefore can find it difficult to prepare for an interview or a speech. Because the moment I start talking, the things I say may be completely different to the ones I prepared.

The individual insight that originates from the inner voice and determinedly establishes new orders.

Gate 43 mentally converts knowledge into individual insights. This gate transforms rational truths into unique insights in the form of “inner voices” and “dropped pennies”. It has its very individual way of structuring knowledge. This gate is only interested in its own insights and deaf to the explanations of others, as it must understand things by itself. Here, insight happens impulsively, unpredictably. Suddenly Gate 43 knows what there is to know. Until then the mind can also be focused on inner voices and sounds. The gate’s potential is Insight.

INFLUENCE - The influence on the community based on adequate cooperation and skillful tactic.

This specialization enables me to use my instincts to sell or convey messages, products or my truth. It is my biggest gift to adapt my expressions to the target audience so that my messages can be understood and I can thus reach my goal. I am very quick in adjusting my position to suit the environment, which enables me to swiftly react to changing market conditions and demands. I have a keen sense of what works and who can be of value to a team at which position. It is the instinctive and creative art of doing business. And this is always a balancing act between manipulation and creating value for customers or buyers. Many people with this kind of specialization are businessmen and -women, filmmakers, journalists, advertising specialists or salespeople. Being effective is one of the qualities of this specialization. In other words, to optimize the rate between input and output in order to reach one's goals with perhaps a little less effort.

Gate 44 is the awareness for survival through instinctive collaboration. It is the memory of the abilities of others, and is an archetype of a human resource manager. It has a nose for the right people for any cooperation. This gate operates out of an instinctive alertness that remembers successes and setbacks from the past. This consideration of the past is a mechanism for survival, which does not only protect the individual, but also the community they belong to. Gate 44 is capable of developing the structures necessary for a healthy cooperation. The gate's potential is Collaboration.

GOVERNANCE - The skillful administration and fair distribution of material resources out of personal integrity.

This specialization challenges me to master life on the material plane. One way of being materially successful is to take things into my own hands and simply have my way. I am a veritable One-Man/ One-Woman Show. As my willpower is very strong, allowing it to unfold naturally can be seen as sheer selfishness. In larger structures my management qualities will attract attention. I sometimes consider democratic processes very cumbersome as I usually think that things should happen exactly the way I want them to. Owing to this specialization, I am capable of getting to the top of a community, to lead and to have control over material processes. If this is not possible or welcome, I prefer to act on my own instead of taking up a subordinate role in society. It is difficult to keep a check on me, and if someone tried it nonetheless, it will be very uncomfortable for me and usually fail to come off. I love to work for my own benefit and not let myself be used for other people's purposes.

Harmonic Gate 29 Steadfast commitment that welcomes new cycles of experiences.

Channel/Specialization 29/46
DISCOVERY - Being available to commit oneself to ever new and complete processes of experience.

This specialization enables me to see experiences to the end. However, if I enter into such a process without being fully committed, it may well end up with me learning nothing and leave only chaos in its wake. The value of a completed cycle of experience will only disclose itself at the end of the process. It is therefore of utmost importance to venture into such processes without expectations, as one usually never knows how things will turn out and experiences only prove their value in retrospect. This is the specialization for discovery and exploration. Just like Christopher Columbus discovered America instead of India, I am - with the proper kind of commitment - capable of making discoveries that cannot be planned or predicted. On the one hand, I am able to attain goals that seem out of reach to others, and on the other hand, fail in areas that do not present a problem to other people at all. My commitment is the prerequisite - but not the guarantee - for success. If I do not feel committed to an experience, a path once taken can lead into crisis or disappointment.

ABSTRACTION - Deliberation over memories in order to find the meaning of completed experiences (confusion).

This specialization enables me to create something new out of something old. I contribute abstract thinking through artistic expression and philosophical, historical or cultural observations. In a manner of speaking, my findings can help rewrite or reshape the past. For instance, also spark a cultural revolution. This process of finding meaning in past experiences can cause a lot of confusion. I should accept this confusion as an important part of my mental processes. Time and again I will notice that clarity sometimes only presents itself after a longer period of time. I should not occupy my abstract mind with constant reflections about my own past, but rather focus on contemplating collective topics and experiences. My abstract mind is not very good at solving my own problems, but it enables me to share interesting stories that will make experiences come alive.

The mental process of interpreting memories with patience and confidence in order to facilitate understanding.

Gate 47 is about mentally processing and interpreting memories. It assembles the past in the form of pictures in order to end the confusion. In doing so, one may get even more confused, as each memory is incomplete and subjective. Past events that were pushed aside as well as memory gaps will cause a sense of internal or external oppression that could be solved with a lot of patience, if one succeeds in putting the individual pieces together into one big picture. Only then will the connections and meanings suddenly reveal themselves. It is a collective gate that can be of considerable inspirational and instructive value to society, even more than to the individual concerned. An example of this is the collective struggle of overcoming the negatives of the past related to historical events. The gate's potential is Interpretation.

This specialization represents the drive to create a sensitive balance between the individual needs of a community and its effective principles. As far as this is concerned, it is also always a matter of the emotional needs and states of a community. For me, physical closeness or even the act of touching other people serves as an important indicator to find out whether or not someone can become part of my community. Eating meals together and having common rituals and principles are issues of great importance to me, as are all aspects of fairness and the question of whether or not something can actually be put into practice.

Principles

49

The revolution based on the highest principles and not only started for the sake of power.

Gate 49 is the emotional stability, which is based on principles. The rules of coexistence within a community are established here. Gate 49 requests obedience, and if someone doesn't accept the rules, they will be rejected and excluded from the community. It is also the gate of divorce and revolution. It can either be very sensitive or insensitive to the needs of others. The only thing that counts is who stands behind the principles and supports them. Gate 49 is able to find support for its principles within the community, if deemed necessary. If the ruling powers violate the principles, the revolution against the ruler will start here. The gate's potential is Principles.

	Ψ ▲	The innate power of motivation that turns fence-sitters into committed comrades-in-arms during change.
6 Attraction		Revolutionary attraction that finds support.
	☯ ▼	Stubborn rejectionism that does not only reject existing principles, but also the people and therefore does not find support.
	☯ ▲	The ability to accompany reform through practical provisions and an adequate organization so as to ensure the long-term support of the community.
5 Reform		The organization of necessary reforms.
	♂ ▼	Higher principles are ignored out of a lust for power. The revolution only serves to maintain one's own authority.
	☯ ▲	The sensitive potential to respond to the needs of the community, ensuring a just replacement of the old order.
4 Justice		The sensitivity to the needs of society.
	♂ ▼	Formulating the needs of the community only to ensure their support, which usually is nothing but an empty promise (political party program)
	Ψ ▲	The sensitivity to reject principles that have failed their purpose, as soon as the prejudices against change have been eliminated.
3 Revolution		The revolution against antiquated principles.
	☯ ▼	The savageness and the lack of sensitivity in destroying the old order will permanently scar the new one.
	⊕ ▲	The wisdom to exhaust every possible peaceful avenue for change. If this is not possible, planning the revolution in detail.
2 Exploring		To explore all possibilities before attempting revolution.
	☯ ▼	The impatient rebel who will not wait for general support, but attacks without attempting a peaceful settlement.
	☯ ▲	The awareness that a principle is only viable when accepted by a broad basis.
1 Realism		The realism which only supports viable principles.
	☯ ▼	The "Helter Skelter" syndrome that turns the violent enforcement of principles into a crusade, thus causing even more disorder.

PRESERVATION - Responsibility and trustworthiness in preserving the community (trustee).

This specialization enables me to assume responsibility and provide the kind of caring energy that is needed for our species to survive. This can become manifest in nurturing the offspring, but also in supplying the energy for preserving the life of the community. For me, it is always a matter of values and the protection of others. People find it easy to put confidence in me as a trustee. The trick is to balance my own needs with those of others. For only if I take care of my own needs, I will be able to do the same for others in the long run.

The awareness of rules and values that can be useful and enriching today and in future.

Gate 50 represents intelligence that is based on values and ethical consciousness. It is the root of human intelligence. All awareness of survival arising from the Intuition Center is brought together and concentrated in this gate: The Stream of Taste - the collective logic, the Stream of Intuition - the individual process, and the Stream of Instinct - the collective process. And like in a cauldron, a melting pot - Gate 50 subsumes them into the values and laws of our culture and civilization. The gate's topic is to assume responsibility and represent laws and values. UNIQUENESS - Naturally following one's unique and individual path with courage.

This specialization makes me a highly competitive person. I want to be the first in everything I do, and I am very much aware of my uniqueness. Others may therefore consider me very bold or else, shocking. I am capable of crossing boundaries in what I do, open up new areas and allow my unique spirit to unfold. I can empower others to do things they would not dare to do on their own. I was born with the power of initiation, which also boosts the competition of ideas and creative processes in my professional life. Nor am I afraid of taking a leap of faith, trying out things other people have not yet even thought of. When I do so, I keep pushing the limit. The source of this power is my determination to follow my unique path, which seems to me the natural and only thing to do.

Courage

The willpower to courageously respond to disorder and shock and stand one's ground.

Gate 51 embodies deliberate and bold initiation. It is the only gate out of the Willpower Center that is not part of the Cooperation Circuit. It represents the individual willpower to be the first or best in something. With the motto "where there's a will, there's a way". It is the gate of competition, of the warrior, of courage, but also of foolishness, as courage can sometimes turn out to be foolish. It has the ability to shock and loves to go where no one else dares to go. Yet, it is also able to deal with the shocks it received. It is the "daring heart" that will attempt or bear the unpredictable and the exciting. The gate's potential is Courage.

	☉ ▲	The willpower and vitality in times of crisis to meet challenges alone and not to succumb to the general panic.
6 Separation	☍ ▼	The power to face challenges alone. The Ego-power to face challenges alone, which may provoke and strengthen the challenger.
	☉ ▲	The perfection of the warrior who by instinctive adaptation and use of major forces even knows how to ride the wave of the shock.
5 Instinct	♂ ▼	Instinctive adaptation in times of shock. The egoism to indulge in victory and lose vigilance, only to be overwhelmed by the next wave.
	☰ ▲	The inventiveness and sometimes even genius of the warrior who discovers and uses opportunities even amidst the most devastating shock.
4 Improvisation	☲ ▼	The genius to find opportunities even in the midst of shock. The stopgaps built on sand by a superficial Ego, which collapse in times of disruption as they lack in solid depth.
	☉ ▲	The life-sustaining spontaneity that has both feet on the ground, firmly and self-assuredly, in times of challenge.
3 Adaptation	ㄩ ▼	Adaptation out of the strength of spontaneity. The Ego that may be destabilized when faced with a sudden and unexpected challenge
	♂ ▲	The instinctive and unresisting withdrawal when the strength of the Ego is threatened and withdrawal is necessary for self-preservation.
2 Withdrawal	☲ ▼	Withdrawal when the strength is threatened by shock. The cleverness that believes to be able to outsmart the active forces and thus accepts a possible defeat.
	☍ ▲	The power of the Ego is shaped by experiences and therefore cannot be thrown off balance by shocks and temporary crisis.
1 Experience	☲ ▼	The strength derived from the experience of crisis and shock. The weakness of the Ego and the tendency to emotionally withdraw in times of shock and challenge.

Temporary self-imposed inactivity in order to calmly reassess matters.

Gate 52 is the drive to find stability and stillness in inactivity. It is the ability to concentrate ONE thing by keeping still. It is a pressure that is self-imposed or forced upon from the outside, which enables us to reassess matters and concentrate energies. Unlike the other gates out of the Drive Center, Gate 52 is not a stress gate, but a gate of tension. It is the passive tension of finding the right subject to focus on. The gate's potential is Stillness.

	♀ ▲	The peaceful and harmonious attunement that is at ease regardless of the situation and enjoys times of stillness without pressure.
6 Peacefulness		Peacefulness and harmonic attunement.
	♂ ▼	The self-delusion and illusion that stillness stems from an inner tranquility, so that one is prone to overlook the real pressure to act.
	⊕ ▲	The ability to make use of inactiveness to attain detailed understanding that clarifies one's own position.
5 Explanation		To explain one's position in times of inaction.
	☯ ▼	A rolling stone gathers no moss. Too much inactivity leads to a loss of concentration, which makes detailed understanding impossible.
	☯ ▲	The perfected self-discipline that deals easily and wisely with sudden temptations and clearly recognizes the value of stillness and focus.
4 Self-discipline		Self-discipline - to appreciate the value of keeping still.
	☯ ▼	Due to an urge for expansion one's restless energy and doubt cannot be controlled, even though one recognizes the value of restraint.

3 External forces		Condemned to inaction by uncontrollable forces.
	♀ ▼	Deep dissatisfaction with inactivity enforced by external powers, which disturbs tranquility and placidness and blurs perception.
	♀ ▲	The consideration to pause for the benefit of others and to let one's own energy come to rest.
2 Consideration		To pause out of consideration.
	♂ ▼	The egoistic and sudden pause at the expense of others that may endanger them.
	⊕ ▲	The ability to fully come to rest and become still, so as to find stability before acting or speaking.

MATURATION - The willingness and energy for growth based on cyclical development (evolution).

Cyclic developments are the very nature of this specialization. My life progresses in the form of a spiral. Its development is best described as going through natural cycles from the beginning to growth to maturity to the end. Still, I do not go round in circles but continuously evolve along the spiral of development. It is important that every cycle needs to be fully completed. Hence I should only start processes that I am willing or able to finish. Only then can I begin with the next loop and actually reach a new level. I can become highly frustrated when I find myself stuck forever in processes that never seem to end. It is vitally important to know which cycles I commit to. For once a new process is started, the cycle must be completed.

Gate 53 represents the drive and the readiness to begin something new. It is the pressure of the starter energy to begin a new cycle without knowing exactly where it will lead. Here is where the energy for new beginnings is released, and it does not matter whether everything that is started by Gate 53 also gets finished. Gate 53 is ready to patiently push new developments in a structured way, even if this may seem complex and difficult at the beginning and there is no certainty that others will provide their support. There is also the potential to include well-trying and established methods in the process. The gate's potential is New Beginnings.

	☰ ▲ The energy to find support for an initiative, as the successes of the past serve as a reference.
6 Step by step	Step by step - the cyclical nature of the way to success. ☯ ▼ Keeping an initiative secret, as one does not trust in others to support a new beginning.
5 Assertion	☱ ▲ The pressure to start something new, convinced that support will follow at a later stage and even though circumstances seem unfavourable at the beginning. To garner support for enforcing something new. ⊕ ▼ The over-assertiveness in a beginning arouses and attracts the very forces that will prevent success.
4 Assuredness	☰ ▲ The confidence and strength to maintain one's individuality even in difficult, complex situations and confused beginnings. The assuredness to maintain one's individuality in beginnings. ♀ ▼ The pressure to begin new things is so strong that "dropping" something recently started will result in unpleasant or embarrassing situations.
3 Pragmatism	☰ ▲ The practical nature to avoid conflicts in order to secure future success and retain support. To avoid conflict in beginnings. ♂ ▼ The unconscious provoking of conflicts, which threatens the safety that results from harmonious cooperation.
2 Momentum	☰ ▲ The protection of what has been achieved makes further success possible, even if something new is started with a certain momentum (attack out of a secured defence). Based on success, the momentum to start something new. ♂ ▼ The mistake that past success guarantees future success leads to haste and unwise action (mindless attacking).
1 Incorporation	☱ ▲ The energy and the pressure to begin something new on the foundations of the old and well-trying. To begin something new on the foundation of the old. ♀ ▼ The refusal to use of the value of experiences makes it difficult to begin something new.

Ambitious interaction that utilizes social and mystic connections and is willing to take up a subordinate role to them.

Gate 54 is the driving factor behind a person's ambitious rise within the community. It is the need to be successful on the material plane and move up the social ladder. It is the pressure to earn money, make profitable deals and, in doing so, attract the attention of higher-ranking people and enlist their support for one's transformation - on a mundane as well as a mystical level. It is always about the right connections to people in positions of power. It is the archetype of the ambitious concubine who eventually becomes the empress. The gate's potential is Ambition.

	☶ ▲	The magnanimity in a position of influence to consider the interests of less powerful people and thereby garner their support.
5 Magnanimity		Magnanimity towards the less advantaged.
	- ▼	The tendency in success to represent only the interests of selected members of the community, in order to keep others suppressed.
	- ▲	Ascension based on the irresistible ability to selflessly devote oneself to the community.
4 Transformation		Devotion in its purest form - The Alpha & Omega.
	- ▼	One meets every person twice: Once on the way up, and once on the way down.
	☶ ▲	The ability to only use unofficial contacts and relationships when stymied in official relationships.
3 Relationships		The use of unofficial contacts as a last resort.
	♀ ▼	The insistent belief that personal power of attraction and increased commitment are sufficient to reach one's goal the official way.
	☵ ▲	The clever discretion for the benefit of ambition, as it does not officially use unofficially obtained knowledge, but keeps it a secret.
2 Discretion		To derive strength from maintaining discretion about unofficial contacts.
	♂ ▼	For a lack of discretion, to display unofficially obtained knowledge and use it for one's own interests.
	☶ ▲	The ability to gain influence through secret relationships and by pulling the strings "behind the scenes", thus satisfying ambitions.

EMOTING - Using obstacles as an opportunity for releasing emotional wealth.

This specialization has me ride the rollercoaster of emotions, up one minute, down the next. This is about the never-ending ups and downs in the cycle of joy and sadness, hope and pain. It means riding the surf of the emotional wave, which is a source of melancholy, but also of creativity. One cannot rationalize melancholy. I can only accept it as being an important part of my personality and make use of the creative power that comes out of it. Others may describe me as being capricious and emotionally unpredictable, which is after all a part of this specialization's highly dynamic drive: To provoke others into showing their emotionality. For a long period of time this kind of emotionality can appear to be very cool, only to burst into an unexpected emotional surge, suddenly and impulsively. I have a keen sense of romance and am very sensitive to acoustic stimuli and music. The emotional awareness that abundance is a product of individual spirit.

Gate 55 is about emotional abundance and mind-set. It is the gate of the "Spirit", which can be deeply melancholic, musical, or romantic. It is also the gate that governs emotional heights and depths. It will always search for the perfect emotional state, be it peace, love, or ecstasy. Gate 55 is waiting to be emotionally provoked in order to find out how it feels at a given moment. When the emotional wave is at its peak, it feels splendid and full, when the wave is down, it feels melancholic and empty. This gate is deeply acoustic and is very sensitive to the tone in which things are said. It is a gate of potential emotional awareness. It is aware of the fact that material abundance is always a question of mindset. The gate's potential is Abundance.

That way, others can be highly stimulated by my ideas and experiences. I am always curious to know things and am forever in search of new ideas and answers. I am much more interested in this process of searching, than in finding the answers or the results. As it is, others frequently find my ideas more valuable than I do. These ideas are therefore less suited to solve my own problems, as the nature and result of this specialization always remains abstract and the answers that I give are not concrete and maybe not directly applicable. "The way is the goal" - that's what is really true of me.

Stimulation

56

The flexibility to follow one's curiosity and seek stimulation in short-term activities.

Gate 56 is about the expression of stimulating stories and ideas. It is the gate of the seekers and of travelling. One loves to tell travellers emotionally stimulating stories, and travellers always have a lot of stories to tell in return. This gate is not about facts, knowledge or proof, but about pictures, memories and ideas. To have control over language and its effect on the emotions of the audience is a very important issue. The more exciting and inspiring the story, the larger the audience. This gate knows how to embellish and expand on its stories, more often than not even far beyond the facts. The gate's potential is Stimulation.

Harmonic Gate 20 The kind of presentness in the Now that turns insights into spontaneous expressions or actions.

Channel/Specialization 57/20
SPONTANEITY - The immediate expression of intuitive alertness and awareness (flash of inspiration).

This specialization expresses spontaneous, intuitive awareness. It is the kind of awareness that secures my survival and is faster than any mental process could ever be. I have the ability to improvise at lightning speed in order to secure my personal survival. I do not have to think to be able to speak and act out of this intuitive certainty. I sometimes experience this as "flashes of inspiration" or an impulse to act, which comes out of nowhere. I have to trust these intuitive impulses even though there may be no rational reason to do so. As my spontaneity can appear somewhat irrational, it can easily alienate people around me. The other side of such spontaneous intuition is the fear of the future and the unknown. If I trust my talent for improvisation, I will find it easy to deal with that fear, as fear results in alertness, which in turn is the source of spontaneous awareness. Intuition is closely connected to the sense of hearing. So sometimes I can actually "hear the future" and anticipate it accordingly.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 51 The willpower to courageously respond to disorder and shock and stand one's ground.

Intuition

57

The possibility to reach to penetrating clarity by way of intuitive alertness.

Gate 57 is the gate of the intuitive awareness that ensures survival. It is the source of awareness which all mammals possess and represents man's deep intuition that generates well-being and ensures survival. This gate is very keen-eared and attributed to the right ear. It is sensitive to sounds and vibrations. Gate 57 is about the fear of the future. Its mode is to stay alert and pay attention in the Now in order to sense and anticipate dangers well in advance. Gate 57 is connected to three other Centers: Through Gate 20 it connects with the Expression Center, through Gate 34 with the Life Force Center, and through Gate 10 with the Identity Center. Those three specializations are "individual" and not made to be influenced by others. By way of selective hearing it is able to distinguish which information is essential for its survival and which isn't. The gate's potential is Intuition.

	♂ ▲	The ability to make the best out of a situation, as one accepts that intuition alone is not always sufficient to ensure a successful process.

OPTIMIZATION - Taking pleasure in improvement and having a talent for optimizing systems on the basis of sound judgement.

This specialization makes me a perfectionist. I immediately see when things are not right or perfect. I have a strong urge to improve things and challenge authorities. This should always relate to improvements concerning the big picture. It is not about finding fault or being dissatisfied with myself. This quality unfolds best when my ability to judge is directed towards collective issues and matters of society. Here, the focus should always be on the process of optimization rather than on the objective. Because there is no such thing as complete perfection. And no one knows better than me.

The insatiable drive to satisfy one's desire for unburdened joy of life and light-hearted vitality.

Gate 58 is the drive to enjoy one's life in easy-going cheerfulness. It is the love of life that manifests itself in the wish to improve things and bring them to perfection. It is the kind of vitality that challenges the status quo and is never satisfied. It's an infinite love of life, and Gate 58 benefits from putting this energy at the disposal of a larger, collective process. Having a task in which it can be of use will keep this gate from becoming insatiable or frustrated. The gate's potential is Joy of Living.

FERTILITY - Connecting and selectively opening to the potential for fruitful processes.

This specialization can be best described as "aura opener". Owing to my life force and charisma, I find it easy to form intimate bonds with other people. What is normal to me can probably be too suffocating for others or maybe lead to misunderstandings. This "fertility" is not only related to the intimacy between people. It is a quality that results in fruitful cooperation and sets off creative processes. This specialization is closely connected to emotions. These emotions can be very unremarkable, maybe even hidden, and only reveal themselves occasionally, depending on the context of a relationship. This specialization becomes quite important in larger structures, as it helps develop and maintain human interaction.

Intimacy

59

The vital force that overcomes resistance in order to effect intimacy and fruitful relationships.

Gate 59 is the vital force for intimacy, interaction, and fertility. It is the genetic imperative to reproduce and create something lasting, be it in the form of children or a product of fruitful processes. It is the role gate that defines how we build up closeness and intimacy with other people. Whether through taking someone by storm or through creating a deep bond between kindred souls. It is the vital force that tears down walls or slowly dismantles them, always aiming at creating closeness. It implies the need to enter relationships with others in various degrees of closeness. As it is not only limited to reproduction; this potential will prove helpful in all kinds of social interaction. The gate's potential is Intimacy.

6 Union	♀ ▲	The vitality to seek and maintain perfected relationships between soul mates, be it for a moment or for eternity.
	♂ ▼	The drive for diversity is so strong that one can only enter into temporary relationships (one-night stand).
5 Seduction	☉ ▲	The power of seduction that makes it possible to establish intimacy and break down barriers.
	♂ ▼	The power of seduction used to experience emotional adventures that will rarely endure.
4 True friendship	♀ ▲	The all-encompassing union with others based on the mutual trust and lack of design that characterizes friendships.
	♂ ▼	The urge to pursue one's intentions with a hidden agenda, which is detrimental to maintaining true friendship.
3 Openness	☯ ▲	The power to drop barriers to shape fertile processes with different people in intimacy.
	♂ ▼	When openness becomes promiscuity. The unreliableness that results from the strong urge to obtain power through union.
2 Shyness	♂ ▲	The shyness that maintains separation and isolation to avoid the instability that might occur through intimacy and emotionality.
	☯ ▼	The urge to remain in isolation behind self-erected barriers, which allows for only few fertile processes and unions with others.
1 Conquest	☉ ▲	The power and vitality to conquer and eliminate resistance to facilitate fertile connections.
	♂ ▼	The indecisiveness to act, even though one recognizes which connections could be fertile.

Harmonic Gate 3 Altering the order and mastering the chaos that arises when syntheses are created.

Channel/Specialization 60/3
INNOVATION - Innovation based on the successful synthesis of established concepts and new impulses (mutation).

This specialization makes me a very impulsive person. I can feel the drive to start or change direction very suddenly and unexpectedly. In doing so, I can bring change and innovation into the world. This may either have a destabilizing effect on others, or encourage them to try something new. I am capable of triggering chaos as well as order in my environment. This impulsive way of using my energy leaves its mark on everything I do. As there is no telling when such a boost of energy will occur, I, too, never know when "it" will happen. Every now and then this can induce a state of melancholy, when things stall and there is no energy at my disposal. This sort of melancholy can be a source of tremendous creativity.

Realism

The realism that accepts limitations as a basis to overcome them.

Gate 60 represents the drive to realistically accept limitations and to preserve what exists. At the same time it is the basis on which mutations can develop. Yet, it is not about continuous improvement, but about the sudden impulse for basic innovation. Such mutations cannot be influenced deliberately. They just happen - or they don't. Gate 60 is the root and the point of origin of the pulse-like individual energy that shapes the entire "Knowing Circuit". And this is what also makes this gate the source of melancholy, which arises when nothing happens. This melancholy is a person's creative force. For even when nothing seems to happen, a great deal happens in fact. Or in the words of Miles Davis: "The music is in the space between the notes." The gate's potential is Realism.

	⚊ ▲ The rigidity to maintain limitations, but at the same time allowing for deviations and innovations to lessen their severity.
6 Rigidity	The rigidity to keep up limitations. ♀ ▼ The dogmatic and principled approach which can be so uncompromising and brutal in its severity that the restraint resulting from it can be unbearable.
	♂ ▲ The leadership that moves within limitations, as it recognizes that destroying the limitations would create nothing but new problems.
5 Leadership	Leadership in times of limitation. ♀ ▼ The leadership that in its desire for expansion wants to go far beyond limitations and as a consequence creates confusion.
	♂ ▲ The resourcefulness to move within limitations and still maximize the potential.
4 Resourcefulness	The resourcefulness to tap the full potential. ♀ ▼ Limitations are seen and brought into question without knowing their value, which leads to retreat and depression.
	♂ ▲ The self-interest to deal with limitations quite naturally and at the same time maintain one's identity and security.
3 Conservatism	The conservative attitude that ensures security. ♂ ▼ The energy of the self-interested Ego ignores limitations and has to accept the consequences.
	♂ ▲ The understanding of existing limitations makes it possible to determinedly grasp opportunities to overcome the limitations.
2 Decisiveness	Taking advantage of opportunities with decisiveness. ⊕ ▼ The energy to adapt to and maintain limitations is so strong that one cannot see when the limitations no longer exist.
	♀ ▲ The ability to maintain inner harmony when confronted with external limitations.
1 Acceptance	The acceptance of external limitations. ♀ ▼ The drive for diversity is so strong that it can lead to a restless struggle against external limitations.

KNOWING - New ways of thinking that suddenly reveal themselves during contemplation.

This specialization makes me one of the great thinkers of the world. I am able to inspire others to think about the mysteries of life. My mind is forever exploring new intellectual areas and does so in completely new ways. I am thus capable of bringing new thoughts and ways of thinking into the world and also want to be recognized for it. I need and love times of silence so that I can "listen" to my thoughts. It may very well be that I even experience noises or voices in my head. Making or listening to music can have a very soothing effect on me and help me reduce my mental pressure. My mind is prone to bouts of melancholy, as I can neither control it nor force insights to occur. My flashes of inspiration come suddenly and unexpectedly. Gate 61 implies the mental pressure to explore the inner mysteries. It wants to know the unknowable. The inspiration coming out of this gate has a great potential for mutation. Many thoughts formed in this gate can have a strong influence on other people. Those are inspirations that light up like flashlights. Gate 61 loves mysticism and the big questions about the unknown. This "desire to know" stays the whole life. This gate creates the pressure to find truths and see behind the secrets of life by way of reflection. The truths that one finds are always individual and often not shared or accepted by the collective. This gate is the point of origin of many esoteric or occult observations. The gate's potential is Mental Exploration.

Other people are usually impressed by my detailed knowledge. However, when speaking out of turn, I can easily bore others with seemingly unnecessary details. This specialization is closely connected to the right eye. This eye is meant to discern logical patterns and focus on the details. I am a very visually oriented person. Pictures and graphical representation are important for me. Very often I can say more in a sketch than with words. I have the qualities of a "logical think tank". I excel at organizing others and leading them with foresight towards the future. My management qualities and organizational talent are based on my ability to grasp all details of a structure and detect possible flaws and deviations. Gate 62 is about the expression of logical details. It has an eye for details and is capable of organizing, naming and expressing facts. It is the voice that says: "I think". Such kind of thinking as well as the details gained from it are the basis of our life. Gate 62 is capable of specifying details, putting a name to everything and everyone, thereby creating the illusion - the Maia. Gate 62 wants to be understood. It attempts to convince others - also through facts and statistics that will prove its logic. It strives for precision and seeks to consider all details, so that the opinions expressed will actually be considered within the collective. The gate's potential is Precision.

Verification

The pressuring doubt that asks for renewed verification in order to reach understanding.

Gate 63 embodies the mental pressure to verify concepts for a secure future. It is the inherently sceptical mind that is forced to doubt things on principle and needs answers. It is the kind of doubt that can only trust when a matter has been explained on a logical basis. Facts, reasons and proof are necessary to find a pattern that will safely lead into the future. Gate 63 is the gate of raising questions and bringing into question whether or not a pattern or a concept is indeed valid to serve as the basis for planning the future. The gate's potential is Verification.

6 Overcoming	䷔ ▲ The sense to leave old doubts behind and consider the previous struggle concluded. The logic that leaves nostalgia behind. ☯ ▼ The obsession to doubt established values, which leads to a nostalgic romanticization of previous values.
5 Affirmation	☵ ▲ The sincerity of purpose allows for overcoming a doubt, last but not least because the value of the doubt has been recognized and the right questions are being expressed. The understanding that doubts are necessary and of value. ♂ ▼ One's own process is continually doubted, which reduces actions to empty rituals.
4 Stock-taking	䷔ ▲ The detailed accounting of a successful process as the basis for secure development and an overcoming of doubt. Stock-taking for the order of the future. ♂ ▼ The risk to believe that doubts have been answered and in doing so forget the details.
3 Continuance	䷔ ▲ The knowledge that other people have to be included in a new beginning and the trust in principles. The new beginning while maintaining one's principles. ☯ ▼ The pressure to eliminate doubt at any cost and only give weight to one's own questions.
2 Structuring	䷔ ▲ The establishment of a structured framework through which the future will be secured while maintaining control of the general direction. The structuring through systematic verification. ☯ ▼ The pressure to control others through the spreading of doubts. The politicians who are spreading fear of the future in order to stay in power.
1 Equanimity	☵ ▲ The equanimous insight that every ending is also a beginning, combined with the doubt whether or not the future can be secured. The equanimity whether development will continue to take place. ♂ ▼ The doubt born out of the fear of the future that challenges and thereby threatens what has been achieved.

Harmonic Gate 47 The mental process of interpreting memories with patience and confidence in order to facilitate understanding.

Channel/Specialization 64/47
ABSTRACTION - Deliberation over memories in order to find the meaning of completed experiences (confusion).

This specialization enables me to create something new out of something old. I contribute abstract thinking through artistic expression and philosophical, historical or cultural observations. In a manner of speaking, my findings can help rewrite or reshape the past. For instance, also spark a cultural revolution. This process of finding meaning in past experiences can cause a lot of confusion. I should accept this confusion as an important part of my mental processes. Time and again I will notice that clarity sometimes only presents itself after a longer period of time. I should not occupy my abstract mind with constant reflections about my own past, but rather focus on contemplating collective topics and experiences. My abstract mind is not very good at solving my own problems, but it enables me to share interesting stories that will make experiences come alive.

Opposite Gate in the Wheel 63 The pressuring doubt that asks for renewed verification in order to reach understanding.

Reflection

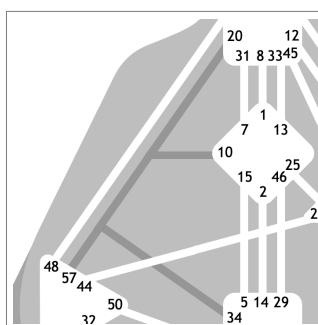

64

Mental activity that searches for the meaning of experiences by way of reflection so as to escape confusion.

Gate 64 is the mental pressure to reflect on the past in order to find the meaning of experiences. It is the constant pressure to ponder over past situations, striving to grasp their meaning. Until the pictures from the past are clarified, there will be confusion. These pictures keep reappearing periodically, once an experience was made or discerned. It is the pressure on an active mind, which rarely pauses, but was not made to manage daily routines or one's life for that matter. After all, it is not about discovering the meaning of one's life, but about grasping the importance of collective experiences. The gate's potential is Reflection.

	♀ ▲	The mental gift of enjoying confusion, confident that victory is inevitable.
6 Victory		The gift of enjoying the confusion.
	♀ ▼	One loses the right perspective as one gets lost in the search for meaning and confusion is being celebrated.
	♀ ▲	One recognizes the meaning of efforts and there is a confident promise that action makes sense.
5 Confidence		The hope of a new order.
	☯ ▼	Focusing on past confusions about values and relationships.
	☺ ▲	The assuredness that confusion is a part of the process that will lead to understanding.
4 Internal assuredness		The assuredness when sensible action is possible.
	♂ ▼	The confusion is so energized that even the assuredness that it will lead to understanding does not bring relief.
	☯ ▲	The wisdom to recognize when help is needed to overcome the confusion.
3 Assistance		To recognize that assistance is necessary.
	☺ ▼	In an overconfident trust that somehow things will work out, one overreaches oneself and refuses help.
	♀ ▲	Based on an inner development, to clarify confusion as one recognizes what is sensible and useful.
2 Qualification		The qualification to recognize relevant experiences.
	☺ ▼	Constantly in action one gets lost in confusion and wastes the very resources one needs.
	♀ ▲	Boldly overcoming confusion, as there is trust that every phase of transition needs determination so that there can be progress (birth).
1 Transition		Reflection on the sense of conditions.
	♂ ▼	Hasty action as one believes to have made sense of the confusion.

THE INTEGRATION CHANNELS

Channel / Specialization 34/20 (in the 64keys Software Channel 71)

ACTIVITY - The emanation and effective expression of one's life force.

This specialization empowers me to express or manifest my life force and creative powers at any given time. This charismatic quality is very appealing to others, as long as I am actually doing something I like or even love to do. Sometimes other people consider me "non-available", as I can be deeply absorbed in my life's processes. When I engage in things I do not love, it may appear to be a matter of being busy for activity's sake and thus be hardly charismatic. No one should have the right to tell me what to do with my inexhaustible vital power. Whatever I do, it will always be a very individual matter and maybe difficult for others to understand. None of that matters as long as I love what I do. Then my actions can really get things moving. Still, I am not at all good at waiting for things. I find it very challenging to have patience with others or myself. Therefore, I may sometimes be too quick in doing or saying things.

Channel / Specialization 34/57 (in the 64keys Software Channel 70)

POWER - Alert intuition while being aware of one's own life-oriented strength.

This specialization provides me with the energy to trust my intuition. If I only do what I have the energy for, what I am actually up for, I will secure my survival at any time. I am the archetype of the individual survivor in the Now and am always ready to flee or fight if necessary. I strongly respond to acoustic stimuli. Sometimes I am able to get more important information out of how things are said than out of the meaning of the words. Others may perceive me as being very cool, even though deep down inside I work like a constantly armed alarm system. If I keep in mind to react to the impulses of my life force, I am an archetype of the human species and am well advised to trust my intuition.

Channel / Specialization 10/20 (in the 64keys Software Channel 73)

PRESENCE - Authentic behaviour as an expression of the Self in the Now.

This specialization enables me to empower other people quite naturally through my authentic being and self-love. And with it comes the capability to survive under any circumstances due to the perfect expression of my own identity. The more authentic I am and the greater my self-love and self-acceptance, the better the quality of my presence can develop. I can strongly identify with what I say. On the one hand, this makes me very convincing, yet, on the other hand, vulnerable to criticism. For me, being criticized for what I say or do is identical to being criticized for what I am. Success will largely depend on how much I can find assurance in self-appreciation. To what extent I have been "awakened" within myself. Whenever I feel inclined to "play a role", people around me will immediately find me out. I just need to "be myself". No matter what it may cost or who will turn their back on me.

Channel / Specialization 57/10 (in the 64keys Software Channel 72)

AESTHETICS - The beauty of the harmony between intuitive awareness and authentic behaviour.

Owing to this specialization I am capable of intuitively spotting the aesthetic value of things. I have the talent to create beautiful things and find their authentic and perfect form. For me, form does not necessarily have to follow function. For me, form and function are inextricably linked to each other, and I take much pleasure in beautiful things. I could make use of my skills and become a designer or architect, but it actually doesn't matter at all what I do. I will always find ways and means to enrich the world with my intuitive individual interpretation of beauty. And this is always a matter of an authentic art of living, too.
